

CRAIG NEWMAN

Film awards
Winning entries in the Third Annual Orchard Ridge Film Festival Contest will be screened at 8 p.m. June 11 in building J-24 on the Farmington Hills Campus. Prizes will be awarded to the winners at that time.
The 15 member Contest Committee is judging the 18 entries. Winning films in each of the nine categories will receive $150 in cash, books and film equipment, donated by Festival sponsors.

Juniors called for track meet

All seventh, eighth and ninth graders in the Farmington School District are invited to participate in the Junior Track Meet at 10 a.m. June 12 on the grounds of Farmington High School.
The annual competition is sponsored by the Farmington Area Jaycees who will register all corners that morning.
Prizes for winners will be given in three age categories.
If we find an outstanding participant, said Dave Clappison, speaking for the Jaycees, "our members will see what we can do about qualifying him or her for state competition."
