

Advise from the Yiddish press

Hillel Headmaster Rabbi Robert Abramson (left) joined teachers and students on stage for a playlet winding up the school year. Abramson took the part of Papa Cohen and Fran Bloom (right) played the editor-columnist of the Jewish Daily Forward. The series of vignettes told of the frustrations of the Jewish immigrants through Papa who took his problems of adjustment to American life to the Yiddish press in turn-of-the-century New York. The sights and sounds of the city's lower east side were recreated by students who hawked herring and dill pickles posing as pushcart peddlers.

H. Griffiths is honored

Hicks G. Griffiths, a Detroit attorney and husband of former U.S. Representative Martha W. Griffiths, has been awarded a special commendation for exceptional service to the Michigan Optometric Association.

The Farmington resident retired as general counsel to the association after 25 years of service to the 700-member organization.

Announcement of the award came during the association's 10th annual convention awards luncheon in Mackinac Island this spring.

Griffiths, who was unable to attend the convention, will receive a plaque.

Convention delegates also approved a resolution of tribute to the former legal counsel who is an honorary life member of the association. The resolution designated him as association counsel emeritus.

A cozy, little gift shop and two great restaurants.

After some great dining, browse the Inn gift shop. In one corner is a nook full of pewterware and hand-cut glassware, all reproductions of originals at Henry Ford Museum. You'll find antique jewelry, old-time toys, Oregon jams, and maple candy cream, too. (Obviously, all the good taste isn't in our dining rooms!) Gift shop hours: 8:30 AM to 8:00 PM.
