Meagan Sanders, Cindy Spets and Pam Jackson.

Thursday at Ward Eagle, the Gold-diggers beat to Angels 2-1. The Angels drove in 13 runs in the first inning, led by one by Lynn Gerber. While warming up before the game, Angels player Kath Kiefer broke her jaw.

The Chargers have a 5 and 6 record after their win against the Rockets. Lynn Losche was the winning pitcher in the 4-4 contest.

The Stagers defeated the Strikers 4-1. Julie White of the Stagers had one home run and pitched for her team. Pat Paschall was the second pitcher for the winners.

The Fireflies had their fifth win of the second half against the Ragamuffins at Bond South. The Fireflies hit and fielded well, winning 27-4. Denise Giroux went five for five, and Carolyn Rambo contributed a triple. Mary Carroll played a good defensive game at third base.

FEDERAL MAJORS

The NFWB Federal Majors Athletics took the lead with a 3 and 8 record. In their game against the Padres, the Athletics scored a tight 10-4 victory. Jeff Long of the Athletics had three hits and drove in the winning run. Padres players Neal Apple had two hits and a home run. Pitcher Matt Blum had five strong innings in Thursday's games against the Expos, the Athletics won 8-4. Dan Conley and Jeff Long struck out 11 batters and held the Expos to three hits. Mike Norman of the Athletics had two hits.

In the Astros-Rangers game, the Astros took the game with a 23-13 score. Alvin Crawford and Paul Ward were four for five, and Matt's Jeff Rios was three for three. Larry Kippel of the Rangers was three for three, and Billy Meyers went three for four.

Later in the week, the Astros won 8-4 against the Orioles. Alvin Crawford was three for three, including a home run. Paul Ward had two hits and John Gregory was three for three for the Orioles.

The Brewers had two wins this week with a 16-3 victory over the Orioles and a 10-0 win over the Mets. Against the Orioles, Alan Letson struck out nine batters and Dan McKnight had two home runs. Jim Murphy of the Orioles also had a home run. Thursday against the Mets, Alan Letson and Dan McKnight each had home runs. The Mets' Dick Herberholz also hit a home run.

A close game between the Mets and the Expos ended in a 5-3 victory for the Mets. Carl Strauss was the player of the game, hitting a double to bring in the winning run.

The Padres beat the Rangers 6-3 on Thursday. Padres pitcher Ricky Brown struck out nine batters and gave up only four hits. Matt Blum was four for four on the Padres.

AMERICAN MAJORS

After falling to the Royals 2-0, the Red Sox came back to score their first win of the season, defeating the Angels 8-7. Brian Pumar went four innings for the Sox. Jamie Ole hurtled two. Paul Leslie slammed a home run as well as a triple while Mark Bouditch had three for four, a single and two doubles. With the Red Sox down three runs going into the sixth, it was Jamie Ole's single against the bases loaded that gave the Sox their one-run edge. Andrew Theriault hurled six innings for the Angels. Mike Blaz scored two of their runs as he slammed a home run and a single.

The White Sox knocked the Yankees from the undefeated column for second half play as they defeated them 4-4 behind the 10 strike-out pitching of Rich McIntosh. Kenan McKeehan's three run homer and Rich's triple, double and single were hitting highlights for the Sox. Steve Stanley had a double for the Yankees. Tom Kaliszewski pitched six innings and struck out seven Tigers as the Sox chalked up their third win for the second half. Fielding by Matt Workman and Chester Kopeck as well as doubles and a single by these players aided the Sox offense. Jim Francis, Dave Simonetti and Tom Roberts were hitters for the Tigers.

The Royals also have three wins in the second half. Their second win of the week came as they defeated the Yankees 4-4 behind the six strike-out pitching of Neil Marston. Gary Buck and Jim Gumbly each scored two of the Royals' runs. Alan Margherie had two runs batted in for the Yankees and Peter George had two hits.

The Twins won both of their games of the week, defeating the Angels 8-7 and the Indians 5-2. John Lamm gave up only four hits as he pitched six innings against the Indians, while Mike Gernaghy and Bob Froux shared the pitching against the Indians. Lamm and Gernaghy drove in three of the Twins' runs against the Angels.

while Steve Erick homered. Tom Margston drove in four runs against the Indians.

AMERICAN T-BALL

Wednesday's American T-Ball action was bright, with three of the four games being won by less than four runs.

The Yankees-Royals game was on of the tense ones. Tied 9-9 at the end of the sixth inning, Mike Dunlop's two-out home run in the bottom of the seventh clinched it for the Yankees with the final score 10-9.

The Angels-Red Sox game went to the Angels, 4-3. Brian McDonald had the winning hit and teammate Tony Ralkabhad good hitting throughout the game.

Larry Galina and Mike Rault had a good day at the plate which gave the White Sox a close victory over the Indians. The final score was 15-12.

The first place Tigers had another winning day, defeating the Twins 23-10. Angelo Evangelista and Jeff Serranoque of the Tigers each had three hits, along with teammate David Bradley's two hits and love-scragging slide into home plate. The Twins had good hitting from Maureen Parads and Thierry Harne.

NATIONAL T-BALL

The NFWB T-Ball League had many surprises in the second week of this ball.
