A proud day

Sheldon Silver of Farmington is presented with a citation for excellence in scholarship by Oakland County Sheriff Johannes F. Spreen, director of Detroit's Mercy College's Law Enforcement and Protection Program. Participating are (from left) Michael Silver, Mrs. and Dr.

David Silver, Sister Agnes Mary Mansour, Mercy president, Sheldon Silver, and Sheriff Spreen. Sheldon received a BA in general science and law enforcement and will attend law school in the fall.

Photos needed for discounts

Identification photos for the Oakland County discount program for senior citizens will be taken on June 24 and June 29. Cameras will be set up at "The Gathering Place" in the American Legion Hall, 31775 Grand River, Farmington. Hours are 10 a.m. to noon and 1-4 p.m. on both days.

Any county resident, 60 and over, is eligible for the program. Pre-registration in person at the American Legion Hall is suggested. Proof of age and social security number will be required.

Stebbins returns from sea duty

Coast Guard Seaman, Michael R. Stebbins, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Stebbins of 21138 Floral Ave., Farmington, has returned to the Naval Amphibious Base, Little Creek, Va., after completing 1975-76 weather patrol as a crew member of the Coast Guard Cutter, Taney.

Rambow enlists in Air Force

John Alvin Rambow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rambow, 21139 Flanders, Farmington, has enrolled in the Air Force's Delayed Enlistment Program. He will enter the Air Force on active duty Nov. 4. Rambow, 17, is a senior at Farmington High School. He will complete six weeks of basic training at Lackland Air Base, San Antonio, Texas.
