

Art fairs: Just a drive away

An arts and crafts fair in Manistique is scheduled for July 16, 17 in the old water tower area.

There will be some art in the Bay City sidewalk days July 21-22 and closer to home, the Farmington Artists Club will hold an outdoor exhibit on the Masonic Temple grounds in downtown Farmington July 21-24.

For motorists going north there will be a beaux arts festival in downtown Grayling, July 22-24 and one a little closer at Holly that same weekend.

On Saturday, July 22, there will be a one day art fair in Menominee. The third annual arts and crafts fair in the Houghton Lake area will be held by the Houghton Lake Art Association at Collins Elementary School, July 23, 24. The two-day Munising arts and crafts show will be held in Bay Shore park July 26, 27.

Another festival that might interest vacationers heading north will be held at Cheboygan's Washington Park July 28. This will be the ninth annual arts and crafts show sponsored by the Cheboygan Area Arts Council.

Turning south, the Wyandotte street art fair will be on Biddle Ave in Wyandotte July 28-30.

Alpena will have an art festival the same weekend, July 29, 30 in Mich-E-Ke-Wis Park, and only a short distance away the Traverse Bay outdoor art fair will be at the Civic Center grounds on July 30. Art on the Rocks in Marquette is scheduled for July 30-31.

The ninth annual Black artist festival will be staged in the medical center area of Detroit on July 30-31. It is titled Harlem Gallery Square.

For a complete calendar of Michigan art fairs and festivals contact Michigan Council for the Arts, 1200 Sixth Ave., Detroit 48226.

From now through the end of the summer and beyond, there's an art fair somewhere in Michigan for those who don't mind the drive.

One of the biggest (and the one most area art buffs look forward to) is the Ann Arbor street art fair. It will be held July 20-23.

In actual fact, three art festivals run simultaneously. The street fair is held on South and East University Avenues. The summer arts festival will be held on the North end of East University and Main streets and the State Street area art fair will be on Maynard, Liberty and North University streets.

Still there are some 27 other art fairs around the state during July. The Sebewaing sugar festival and arts and crafts show and sale will be held July 8-9. Next will be the clothingline art show on July 2, presented in Plainwell by the local arts and crafts club.

The 18th annual art fair in St. Joseph will be held July 10 and the Dundee arts and crafts show will be held the same day, July 10.

In a relatively short time, persons from this area, can make it to the Blue water summer art fair in St. Clair July 13, 14, and the 13th annual Alpenfest at Gaylord opens the July 13 and runs for three days.
