

Presidential scholar comes from Farmington

For the second year in a row, a Detroit Country Day School (DCDS) senior has been named a Presidential Scholar. This year's recipient is Stewart Henderson of Farmington Hills. The previous recipient was Anthony Spilka of Detroit.

The Presidential Scholars Program, established by executive order in 1964, has honored the nation's most intellectually distinguished secondary school graduates for 11 years.

Henderson, who has been at DCDS since the first grade, has received many honors. He received a $1,000 scholarship from Chrysler Corp. as a National Merit Scholarship finalist and the national award for writing from the National Council of Teachers of English.

He also was the recipient of the DCDS Springer Memorial Award for best English student in 1976, the 1977 certificate of recognition for outstanding academic achievement for the Michigan Competitive Scholarship program, a certificate award for high school students from the Detroit Association of Phi Beta Kappa, and was named summa cum laude for Forms V, VI and VII.

In addition, Henderson received the Detroit News short story and light verse commendation and certificate of merit, honorable mention.

HENDERSON is a four-year varsity letterman on the track team and last year placed third in the state in high and low hurdles in regional competition.

He is a three-year varsity letterman on the soccer team, a member of the drama club, the DCDS chorus and the yearbook staff.

The 121 Presidential Scholars annually are selected from public and private high schools to receive personal recognition and a commemorative medal from the president of the United States.

One girl and one boy are chosen from each state, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. Two students are selected from American families living abroad and 15 additional students are selected at large.

There is no monetary award given to the scholars.

CMU honors given students

Farmington and Farmington Hills residents were among those students winning honors on the dean's list at Central Michigan University.

To be placed on the dean's list a student must take at least three classes during the term and received a 3.5 or better average.

Leading the list was Farmington resident Lisa Clarke, 34150 State, who received a straight 'A' average.

Other Farmington residents were Janice Burke, 32566 Hargrove Ct.; Linda Murphy, 33561 Johnstown; Debra DeCourcy, 32770 Briarcrest; Gina Gerst, 25344 Brookview; Linda Goodman, 30244 Barwell; Gail Gruenwald, 36119 Congress; Susan Moore, 26011 Westmeath; and Judith Otto, 22900 Manning.

Farmington Hills resident Garret Vandenberg, 26057 Hidden Valley, also was named to the dean's list.

AN OPEN LETTER FROM DENNIS PORVIN OWNER OF "A PLACE FOR HIM"

Dear Friend:

A Place For Him... a sportswear store for your entire family, right here in your local West Bloomfield area. We invite you to come in and visit us at the Orchard Mall, and enjoy the warmth and casualness of our store while selecting from our large inventory.

Here you will find quality brand-named sportswear, such as Levi, Viceroy, Faded Glory, Male and Metro. We also carry the finest brands of pre-finished slacks, shirts, and sweaters from Wayne Rogers, Roland Shirt, Geno, Kensington, Mad Man to Robert Bruce and others, priced from $15 to $25.

We sell American styled, tapered, and full-cut suits and jackets, sized from 36 through 46.

Our tailor, David, is available daily for all your tailoring needs; men, women, and children. Hard to fit? We now have a full cut jean to fit any man or woman. David can alter any pair to give you the greatest comfort and best appearance at no charge.

We welcome the opportunity to service your own personal tailoring needs, at A Place For Him.

Our store hours are 10-9 p.m. daily, and noon to 5 p.m. on Sunday.

In closing, I would like to wish every Mother a very Happy Mother's Day. Better yet, stop in Sunday and receive a Free carnation--my gift to "Her".

Sincerely,

Dennis Porvin
