Irene MacKinnon presents

Ann Alpern (left), a student in Irene MacKinnon's Farmington Community Center's sewing classes, is one of the models who will show what they've created for spring and summer when "Irene MacKinnon Presents" begins at 9:30 a.m. May 20, in the center. While the parade of fashions, from sportswear to evening gowns, takes place, Ms. MacKinnon's commentary amounts to a morning long sewing class. This year, she'll tell guests how to obtain the proper fitting of slacks, among other hints. Tickets at $3.50 are now on sale in the center.

St. Bede Players stage 'Red Mill'

Victor Herbert's sparkling operetta, "The Red Mill," will be staged Thursday through Sunday, May 19-22, in Our Lady of Mercy High School auditorium by the St. Bede Players. It is the 10th musical the group has produced since its inception in 1966. The nucleus of the group is from Southfield's St. Bede Catholic parish, though open auditions are held, and those on stage, as well as backstage crews, come from the entire metropolitan area. Curtain time, in the school on the corner of Eleven Mile and Middle Belt in Farmington, is at 8 p.m. Thursday through Saturday, and 7 p.m. Sunday. W. Gerald McCray is directing the musical, and the music is under the direction of Joe Gamahe. Some of the well-remembered toe-tapping tunes from "The Red Mill," are "Everyday is Ladies Day With Me," "The Streets of New York" and "Mignonette." The plot of the show revolves around two Americans, Kid Corner and Con Kidder, who visit the Red Mill Inn in a tiny Dutch village. The duo meets a young girl, who loves one man, but has been promised to another by her father. The plot thickens with a wealthy aunt in love, a widow who wants a father for her four daughters, and a sheriff who cannot seem to arrest any one but himself. Tickets are $3.50 for adults, or $2 for seniors and students, though seniors and students will be admitted for $1 on opening night. They may be obtained at the door, or by calling George Birkham, at 559-0419.
