St. Bede Players stage 'Red Mill'

Southfield's St. Bede Players are presenting Victor Herbert's operetta, "The Red Mill," Thursday through Sunday in Our Lady of Mercy High School auditorium.

It is the 10th musical the group has produced since its inception in 1966. The nucleus of the group is from St. Bede Catholic parish, though open auditions are held and those on stage, as well as backstage crews, come from the entire metropolitan area.

Curtain time, in the school on the corner of Eleven Mile and Middle Belt in Farmington, is at 8 p.m., Thursday through Saturday, and 7 p.m. Sunday.

W. Gerald McCray is directing the musical and music is being directed by Joe Ganuche.

Some of the well-remembered, toe-tapping tunes from "The Red Mill" are "Everyday is Ladies' Day with Me," "The Streets of New York" and "Mignonette."

The show's plot revolves around two Americans, Kid Corner and Con Kidder, who visit the Red Mill Inn in a tiny Dutch village.

The duo meets a young girl, who loves one man, but has been promised to another by her father. The plot thickens with a wealthy aunt in love, a widow who wants a father for her four daughters and a sheriff who cannot seem to arrest anyone but himself.

Tickets are $3.50 for adults and $2 for seniors and students, though seniors and students will be admitted for $1 on opening night. Ducats may be obtained at the door or by calling George Birkham at 535-0419.
