

Forum set on crime

The Jewish Community Council of Metropolitan Detroit will sponsor a free public forum on crime featuring State Senator Jack Faxon (D-Detroit), State Supreme Court Justice Blair Moody, Jr., and Oakland County Sheriff Johannes F. Spreen at 8 p.m. Thursday, June 2, in the auditorium of Temple Emanu-El, 14450 West Ten Mile Road, Oak Park.

"Crime in the streets will be one of the testing grounds for the democratic way of life in the coming year," said Elaine S. Grand, an attorney and chairwoman of the Civil Liberties subcommittee of the Jewish Community Council, which arranged this forum.

"Demagogues may attempt to exploit high crime rates in an effort to curtail civil liberties, but we have to protect ourselves against that. At the same time, crime must be fought on its own terms."

"Beyond that, we have to be aware of the root problems of crime such as unemployment and poverty and be prepared to fight them."

"The purpose of our forum is to look at some methods for community action to fight crime and its accompanying problems, recognizing that no single cure is available."

Ms. Grand said representatives of law enforcement, judicial and the legislative sections of the criminal justice system were invited to speak "because we recognize that this is a multifold problem."

John H. Shepherd, president of the Jewish Community Council, will act as moderator.

Members of the Jewish Community Council's Civil Liberties subcommittee include Dr. Eugene Arden, associate chairman, Farmington; James M. Cohen, Franklin, Mrs. Samuel Pink, Farmington Hills; Mrs. Arnold E. Frank, Farmington; Colman Levin, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. John Nemon, Southfield; Prof. Harold Norris, West Bloomfield; Mrs. Esther Pastor, Birmingham, and Mrs. Richard Sloan, Birmingham.

2 astrology talks set

The Michigan Astrological Research Society will bring to the Detroit area in June two internationally known astrologers, Roger Elliott and Ronald Davidson. Both are from England and are well-known in this country.

Elliott will be the guest speaker at the organization's monthly meeting at 8 p.m. Monday, June 6, in the Ferndale Community Center, Nine Mile east of Woodward. His topic will be "Crime and Astrology."

Elliott, a leading British astrologer, writes a regular column in TV Times and has developed a popular computer-based forecasting system in Britain.

He is a past secretary of the Astrological Association of England. He has appeared on radio and TV in England and is scheduled to be interviewed on the "Today Show" here. Tickets for the June 6 lecture are $5.

Presenting a lecture on "Patterns of Chart Interpretation," Ronald Davidson will speak at 8 p.m. Monday, June 27, in the Ferndale Community Center. Davidson also will present a workshop on Sunday, June 26, for a limited number of people.

The Michigan Astrological Research Society, MARS, represents the large and growing Detroit area astrological community. Its members range from beginning students to the best known professional astrologers in the area.

The director of the organization is Paul Hudson, who may be contacted for information and reservations at Middle Earth Bookshop in Sterling Heights. Susan Manuel of Flat Rock is co-director, and Beverly Cort of Washington, Mich., is secretary.
