Last Tuesday's thunderstorms inter-rupted the Kermit Ambrose Relays, but none of the 10 contending teams could interrupt. Birmingham Groves' string of victories in the annual high school track classic.

The Ambrose Relays, which used to be called the Eccentric Relays before it was renamed in honor of the long-time Birmingham Seabolm track coach, was postponed with three events to go at Bhomfield Hills Lah-ser last Tuesday. The meet was com-pleted the following afternoon at Bloomfield Hills Andover.

Bloomleid Hills Andover.

Coach Tom Kearney's Groves team scored 61 points to vin the meet for the third-straight year. Birmingham Brother Rice was second with 46, West Bloomleid had 43, Detroit Country Day 27, Southfield High 22, Southfield-altimy 21, Labser 20, Andover 17, Troy High 15, Seaholm eight and Crambrook foru.

Southfield had been expected to challlenge Groves and Rice for the meet title this season. Coach Chuck Balog's Southfield crew had finished its most successful dual-meet season ever, going 94 overall and 5-0 in the South-eastern Michigan Association and then winning the SMA League Meet.

"I think we used it all up at the league meet." Balog said. "You go 9-0, you rally the team for a couple of key dual meets . . . it's pretty difficult to get fired up again, especially after a Memorial Day weekend and a senior trip."

SOUTHFIELD'S SHUTTLE hurdle relay (Ken Raby, Joe Perry Darryl Claussel and Nick Colling) won in 1885. "That was Joe Perry's first hurdles race of his life," Balog said "He'd never run a flight of hurdles before and he probably never will again. But he's as fast as can be, so we put him in there, and he won it for us."

The two-mile relay was the closest race of the meet, and it involved Southfield and Lathrup. Lathrup's
