Light C'ville vote expected

An estimated 600 voters in the Clarenceville school district are expected to pick a new school board member in next Monday's election.

Three candidates, Frank Lozano, Donald Nicholson, and Berry Sherman, are campaigning for the right to succeed Thomas W. Wilson, who is retiring halfway through his four year term.

In past years, about 10 per cent of the registered voters cast ballots in school board elections.

Board incumbent Norman Hunt is unopposed for a four-year term. There are 6,200 registered voters in the district which includes parts of Livonia, Farmington Hills, and Redford Township.

The nine Schoolcraft candidates are Jack Bologna, Michael Cicchella, George Gravia, Harry Greenleaf, Richard Hayward, Rosina Raymond, Karl Sjogren, Laura Toy, and Leonard Wozniak.

IN THE CLARENCEVILLE race, there have been issues dividing the candidates, who have been campaigning on their backgrounds and professional experiences.

Lozano, 32, of 19982 Lathers, Livonia, is an assistant elementary school principal in Detroit and has his doctorate course work in education completed at the University of Michigan.

Nicholson, 38, of 20044

Sunbury, Livonia, is a district order service supervisor with Westinghouse Electric Corp. and has a business administration background and a degree from the University of Toledo.

Sherman, 25, is a Livonia police department youth officer and is a Clarenceville High School graduate. He has an associate degree from Schoolcraft and a BA from Madonna College.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m.-8 p.m. Winner of the two-year term will be installed and take office in early July.

Judge Schaeffer speaks at OCC convocation

Judge Margaret Schaeffer, of Farmington's 47th District Court, will be the speaker at the annual honors convocation at Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge campus on June 12. The program will recognize those students who earned all "A" averages during their year at the Farmington Hills campus.

"We are pleased that our students will hear one of Michigan's prominent citizens," says Dr. Don Nichols, dean of students.

Judge Schaeffer brings to our rostrum a record of successful law practice and fair and impartial judicial experience. At a time when people are interested in careers and opportunities for women, she presents an excellent example.
