Heritage Day

St. Fabian students researched the customs and beliefs of their cultural origin, wrote letters, gathered recipes, maps, old photos, family heirlooms, then dressed up in native costume for the school's Heritage Day. Monsignor Charles Malloy, who says the Irish at the school came in first in numbers, is flanked by his colorfully dressed friends. On his left,

Katy Poniatowski, (Polish) Chris Leslie (Hungarian) Jackie Labo (French) and Christine Carrier (Irish). On his right, Kathy Smigielski (Polish), Dawn Judge (French) and Eva-Marie Solar (early American). A luncheon of ethnic foods, prepared by the students for parents and the school staff, topped the day. (Staff photo by Harry Mauthe)
