Mrs. Brian Frye

Lorin A. Quatt and Brian R. Frye were wed in late afternoon ceremonies June 19, in Orchard United Methodist Church in Farmington Hills. The rites were officiated by Dr. Wayne H. Flenner, the bride's grandfather. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Quatt, of 2672 Holly Hill, Farmington Hills, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Frye, of Farmington Hills. The bride fashioned her own gown, of white crepe and lace. She carried yellow roses and white carnations. Anabeth Ermsberger, clad in a yellow princess styled gown with yellow lace cape, served as maid of honor, with bridesmaid Peggy Haller. Steven Frye and Daniel Frye, both brothers of the groom, served the groom. The couple received 100 guests following the ceremony in the Farmington Community Center before leaving on a wedding trip to northern Michigan.

Prusinski-Peltier

Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Prusinski, of Farmington Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter Antoinette Marie to Charles A. Peltier III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peltier, of Detroit. A July wedding is planned.

Club Circuit

PIONEER WOMEN, Greater Detroit Council, is now in the process of forming its fall bowling league, and invites interested women to contact Karen Berris, at 968-6428 to join them. The league will meet in Plum Hollow Lanes, Nine Mile and Lahser, on Mondays, at 1 p.m. Nursery services for preschoolers will be available.

THE AMERICAN DIABETES ASSOCIATION, Michigan Affiliate joins in the Detroit International Freedom Festival activities with a Byke-a-Thon, headed by Sonny Eliot on July 3. Those wishing to participate in riding to aid in the fight against diabetes are invited to call Candi Kitchen, at the state headquarters, 342-9333. The association reports this week that the spring Skate-a-Thon had 4,219 participants and $178,861 in pledges.

PARENTS WITHOUT PARTNERS, Farmington-Southfield chapter, meets at 8:30 p.m. June 23 in St. Francis Knights of Columbus Hall, 21900 Middle Belt.

The club meets on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month, and meetings are open to parents without partners only.

AMERICAN BUSINESS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION, Twelve Oaks Chapter, meet at 6:30 p.m. June 23 for its annual "Boss Night" in Plum Hollow Golf Club, 21631 Lahser, in Southfield.

Guest speaker for the evening is Dr. Robert Lusk, from University of Michigan and an advocate of vocational training.

Guest of honor, in addition to the members' bosses, will be Marilyn Truax, chosen as the chapter's "Woman of the Year" for 1977-78.

SENIOR CITIZENS SOCIAL CLUB, of Farmington, meet at noon, June 24, in the social hall of First United Methodist Church of Farmington on Grand River and Warner.

Guests are asked to bring a sandwich for lunch. Cards will be available for afternoon recreation, following the business meeting.

FARMINGTON AREA MOTHERS OF TWINS CLUB meet for its first annual family picnic, at 1 p.m. June 26, in Farmington City Park, on Shawassee and Power.

The club invites all area families with twins to join them. In the event of rain, the picnic will be postponed to July 3.

The newly formed group has just held its first official election of officers. Plans for future activities include periodic guest speakers who will talk on subjects pertinent to mothers of twins, and a clothing exchange-rummage sale for the fall. Membership inquiries will be taken by calling Diane Sands, at 474-1948.

ORCHARD METHODIST ACTIVE RETIREES plan a group tour to Meadowbrook Hall on June 27. Persons wishing to join the tour are invited to call Marion Greene, at the church, 474-2651.

MILITARY ORDER OF THE PURPLE HEART AUXILIARY, Unit 236, meet at 1 p.m. June 27 in the home of Mrs. John Patrick, on Peppermill, in Farmington Hills.

The group is comprised of wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of recipients of the Purple Heart medal. America's oldest military decoration awarded to enlisted men wounded or killed in action.

The unit is interested in gaining membership to help carry on the work of assisting hospitalized veterans and participating in community services.

Mrs. Patrick is secretary-treasurer of the unit.

She will take membership inquiries by calling her at 553-2394.
