Haphazard hints, shaky solutions Fixing up Farmington turns into a fixation

By LOUISE OKRUTSKY Need a fix in Farmington but don't know where to go? That in itself is a fix, but never fear, read on and we'll fix that too.

There are lots of things that need a fixin. Hangover still hanging in there? Maybe you need some head repair. Left a weekend party and decided to crash? We'll direct you to some bent bumper fixers.

Maybe mom and dad need to be fixed-mom and dad cat or dog that is. There's help for that, too, in the Farmington Observer guide to getting a fix.

BEST WAY TO GET INTO A FIX: BEST WAY TO GET INTO A FIX: A friendly Farmington Hills police offi-cer seem to be the most qualified to untangle this quandary. "Break the law in front of a cop." suggested one shy but helpidu lieutenant who assured us that was a great way to get into a fax. "Yooil get the fastest response that way, added Parmington LI. John Santamauro.

FIXING THE FIX Once you're in a fix, the next logical step is to extri-cate yourself. Surprised by a costly note the local constabulary thought-fully stuck in the windshield of your improperly parked car? Want to know the best way to fix your ticket? "Pay it." suggested the Farmington Hills police.

If you're caught untangling that fix in another more devious manner and need some money to get out of anoth-er fix after visiting Judges Michael Hand or Margaret Schaeffer, call a bondsman.

Although the Farmington area can't claim a bondsman for a native son, Wayne and Garden City purveyors of the trade will be happy to oblige. Look in the Yellow Pages for the ABC Bonding Co. of Wayne or the Bail Bond Services Inc. of Garden City.

THE FIX-IT KID-RENT A PUNK Does revenge sound sweet? Want to get even with that bully web togs your favorite swing at Shawassee Park? How about dousing an old fame? Rent a hood. Many hoods can be found in dark alley or play go recognize. No one dee prectices combing their waterfail hairstyle with such finesse. If a hood fixes you, dial Y4-1386 in Farmington or Y4-2335 in Farmington Hills and the local police will see that he hangs up his black leather jacket. FIXING YOU HEAD After all that FIXING YOU HEAD After all that excitement, you'll probably want to get into some head repair. Got a hang-over after drinking away your sor-rows? The gang down at Monk's Cel-lar, Farmington Hills, suggests you douse that fix with a fix of the hair of the dog that bit you. If that doesn't do it, try fixing some beer and tomato pice or gupting down some vitamin B-12. If all elee fails, you can always plop, plop, fizz, fizz with some Alka Seltzer.

Selizer. If you're headed for a different kind of mind repair, try taking a few courses at Oakland Community Col-lege's Orchard Ridge Campus or get some fresh air with a Farmington Area Recreation Commission activity. That'll fix you up. If you want to get fixed in a less organized manner, try taking a walk through some of the less urban areas of the cities. Drake Road at Thirteen Althe or Howard are fice and green at this time of the year. For some stationary head fix-ng, sit on a park bench at Shiawasse or Waldron Park.

More serious repairs need outside help. Call Farmington Area Advisory Council at 477-6767. They fix teens and their families. For an instant head fix get a hold of the RAP LINE at 477-6601.

FIX UP FATHER OR MOTHER Heavens, not again, And we were so careful. If all else fails, take that cat or dog to a vet and get them neuter-ed. Keeping the critters indoors might prevent them from littering but if you want to be sure, fix the family pet at the local vet. For 35, a female cat or dog can be freed from family responsi-bilities at the Oakland-Orchard Veter-inary Clinic in Farmington, according can be cured of wanderbust for and a male cat can find himsel if so and a male cat can find himsel if so and a male cat can find himsel if so situation, bring that Stray over to the Oakland County Humane Society.

GETTING A FIX ON YOUR FA-VORTE FIXATION Got a yearning to bingo your way through the night? Pack up your lucky charm and cruise by Sans Souic Hall Wednesdy nights. Senior bingo players can cover all four corners at the Gathering Place, which features the game during some alternoors.

If you have a sound fixation, mark July 23 and 24 on your calendar. That's when Sans Souci Hall will be in-vaded-by Michigan's record collec-tor's_convention. For a $1 admission you can find nearly any old group's original platters.

Is wishin' for the old days your fix-ation? Need a fix of those glamorous oldies but goodies? Take a peek at the collection of old movies and comics at the Farmington Comic Center.

GETTING FIXED AUTOMATI-CALLY If your auto needs fixing, some Farmington area businessmen are wishing they'll be fixing your auto-matic trans-insision. To take out the ping and put the hum into your driv-ng machine, try out the folks at Farmington Transmission, Farm-ington Hülsr For classy crastikes. Imp over to Classic T-Bird Shop, Parm-lington or Corrette Custom and Collision, Farmington. Domestic bent fend-ers can be taken care of at Gordy's Garage, too. VISUAL FIXATIONS Television out of tune? Charlle 's Angels booking burry? Try out that long time Farm-ington television doctor at Pete's Tele-vision and Radio Service. Pete's been in Farmington since 1924.

HEALTH FIXATIONS After you've fixed almost everything else, give yourself a fix of health foods. Miner-als, vitamins, health and diet foods can be found al Helen's Health Hia, Farminton. If vitamins are what you're fixing to take, get in tooch with Farmington's Shaklee Vitamin distrib-tor

FIX THE PRESS Fixing to get your name in print? If you or your group is fixing to do something special, give us a call and we'll tell everyone else about it.

Fix up some free room and board fast by breaking the law in front of the local police. Phash quarters (below) can await you. If a problem needs some outside, help (below left), try biring some-one to fix it. Look in the first dark alley. Along the way to getting in-to a fix, you'll probably have a friendly visit with Judge Marga-ret Schaefter (left above). She can fix it so you can get away from it all for a while. (Staff photos)

Getting into fixes can afflict almost every creature. Dogs can get into fixes (left top) just as well as humans but a friendly vet can re-lieve any pooch of baving to worry about family resolution baving to worry about family resolutions, too baving to worry about family resolution having to worry about family resolution to a pool to the bave problems, too. A bent fender can turn a classy con-veyance into a maimed mound of metal (below). One car owner has fixed bis health problem along with his car in-surance agent. After this crash he'll get a lot of good body fix-ing exercise by walking.

Thursday, July 21, 1977