Wayne Jones says:
Use Vines for color and screening in your garden. Vines can quickly cover objectionable views from your yard and add beauty to your landscaping. Select the proper vine to grow on fences, trellises, posts or brick walls.

Pinchoff seeks top ranking

By DAVID SAUNDERS

Mark Pinchoff isn't just any kid with a tennis racket in his hand. A sophomore at West Bloomfield High, Pinchoff may be on the verge of distinction and recognition in the tennis world. These next four weeks will determine that.

The 15-year-old netter played in the Western Closed Tournament in Indianapolis recently, and was one of the 16 players to qualify for the nationals in early August. Pinchoff's performance in the Western tourney also qualified him for two additional tournaments, the Western Open and the National Clay Courts during the last two weeks of July.

And Pinchoff made an impressive showing in the Southeastern Michigan Qualifying tourney last month, beating Paul VanWalleghem in the finals, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4. VanWalleghem is a state Class B high school champion.

Doing well in all these tournaments will give Pinchoff a top national ranking in his age group. This is the ladder he needs to climb before he can reach the success of two other young tennis stars, John McEnroe and Tracy Austin. They were two of the youngest players at Wimbledon this year.

Pinchoff was ranked last year in the nation somewhere between 44 and 64 in the 16-and-under age group. In the Western Tennis Association (WTA), he earned a No. 14 ranking last year.

THE NATIONAL rankings haven't been made public yet for this year, but Pinchoff has beaten some formidable foes to help his cause. At the Orange Bowl Tournament this past winter, he beat Adam Beren, of Wichita. Beren was ranked 12th in the nation last year.

In New York over Easter, Mark played in the Easter Bowl and won a couple matches, beating Paul Crozier, of Texas, who was ranked in the top five coming into this year.

Pinchoff is only 5-feet-6 and 140 pounds, but says he's been growing a lot lately. He's left handed just like Wimbledon runnerup Jimmy Connors. Being left handed is an advantage, according to Pinchoff, because not many opponents have played lefties.

Rod Laver, also a southpaw, is Pinchoff's favorite player. The West Bloomfield netter considers Laver one of the greatest who ever lived because he won the Grand Slam of tennis twice. He met Laver once in Canada at a tournament when Laver awarded the trophies in a tournament.

Pinchoff has the aspirations that Laver achieved. "It's a long way off, but it's in the back of my mind," he said. "For me to become a good player, though, I'd have to play the big game (the big serve and volley up front)."

"Concentration is also the hardest part of my game, and I have a lot of trouble with it. You have to have that killer instinct, and that comes with experience. I like to stay in the backcourt. When I'm playing well, the most effective part of my game is my serve and overhead, and lately my two-handed backhand," he added. "I haven't been volleying a lot. I started trying to come in last year."

PINCHOFF COMES from a family of tennis players. His father, Dean, will be the head pro at Franklin Racquet Club in September. His mother and father went with him on the recent five-week tour.

"It's a lot of fun touring," Pinchoff said. "You get to meet a lot of nice people. I've been going the tournament route for the last five years, and this is the first time my parents have taken time out to coach and watch."

"It makes it a little better with my parents going along. I don't have to worry. Also my dad is my coach, so he can let me know what I'm doing wrong."

Pinchoff has been playing tennis since the age of five. His two older brothers, then 10 and 11 years old, dragged him down to the courts for practice.

One brother, 20-year-old Jim, teaches at Square Lake Racquet Club, and helps Mark with his game. The other brother, 21-year-old Mike, is in the Air Force. Mark's sister, Sue, just graduated from West Bloomfield High, where she was a member of the girls' swimming team. Mark's mother works in the office at the Square Lake Racquet Club.

"It takes a whole family to make a great tennis player," Pinchoff said. "My mom sacrifices time, and my sister has suffered a little. No kid can make it on his own."
