BRIDGE

The Southern Michigan Bridge Asso-ciation hosted its semi-annual Mini tournament at the Hillcrest Country Club in Mt. Clemens last Sunday. A field of 144 pairs competed for master points and prizes. Bertha Margolis of Troy and Lulie Brunk of Beverly Hills won by only one-half point over Phyllis and Jack Mastrom of Bloomfield Hills. The hand in the diagram is one of

Blue Lake hosts 12 from Farmington

Twelve students from the Farm-ington area attended the third session at Blue Lakes Fine Arts Camp, a sum-mer school of the arts located just north of Muskegon.

The students from Farmington were Michael Begian, Chuck Dierkes and Robert Wigger, who majored in band; Brian Goodman, jazz-rock and Ann Miller, musical theater.

Eric Vetter, Michael Steinhelper, Loenard Atkins and Janet Kastura, who majored in band, and Kathleen Weiland, Jennifer Morrow and Gayle Dalawrak, who majored in orchestra, all came from Farmington Hills.

Blue Lake was founded in 1966 and has grown to become one of the larg-est facilities of its type in the United States. It offers students a highly diverse arts curriculum.

Programs for elementary, junior high, high school and college students are offered in two-week sessions throughout the summer. The third session, July 19-31, is primarily for high school students.

THIS SESSION offers students the options of majoring in art, ballet, band, jazz-rock ensemble, orchestra, piano and musical theater.

The Bille Lake art program includ-es work in drawing, painting, wear-ing, stitchery, textile designing, macr-ame, sculpture, ceramics and jew-elry. The purposes of the art program are the making of works of art, the un-derstanding of at objects in relation to the culture and the critical eval-uation of art products.

Band students at Blue Lake are di-vided into three bands according to ability. In addition to three hours of in-tensive daily rehearsals and section-als, band students can enroll in tech-rique classes and choose an elective.

In jazz-rock ensemble, there are only two ensembles of complete standard instrumentation. Work in this program includes two hours of full ensemble rehearsal daily, a sectional rehearsal and an hour of improvisation.

There are also two orchestras, with students assigned according to proficiency after auditions, which are held the first day of the session, Besides a full rehearsal schedule, students can attend performances of the Blue Lake staff string quartet.

High school students attended the theater and musical theater program. The theater program ran from June 21 to July 17, and the musical theater and from July 5-31. Students can perform at the Howmet Playhouse in Whitehall, which is owned and operated by Blue Lake.

The theater program includes a study of the elements of theatrical production, dramas, history, design and directing, but the emphasis is acting. Two plays were presented to the public during this period, "Blithe Spirit," and "Royal Gambit."

musical treater students also did two shows this summer, both per-formed at the Howmet Playhouse. The shows chosen this year for the 25-student class were "The Music Man" and "Damn Yankees."
