Magic Moments

Librarian Bruce Schmidt got into the act when close to 600 members of the Abracadabra Alakazam Summer Reading Club celebrated the end of club activities on Aug. 5. There were prizes and popples for the youngsters in addition to the magic show. Refreshments were provided by the Friends of the Southfield Library. (Staff photo by Gary Friedman)

Two Southfield men take posts with GE

Two Southfield residents have accepted positions with the General Electric Company in Albany, N.Y.

Rodney J. Filipek, a 1977 electrical engineering graduate of Lawrence Institute of Technology in Southfield, has accepted a post in field engineering with General Electric's installation and service engineering division.

Filipek will receive technical training in Schenectady and on-the-job assignments as a member of the company's field engineering program.

He is a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers and the Engineering Society of Detroit.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Filipek of Detroit.

Another Lawrence Tech graduate, David Len Messenger has accepted a field engineering position with General Electric's installation and service engineering division.

A 1977 electrical engineering graduate, Messenger will receive technical training and on-the-job assignments in Schenectady also.

He is a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers and the National Society of Professional Engineers.

Area CPAs are named

The Michigan State Board of Accountancy recently granted CPA certificates. Four, Southfield residents, were among those who met qualifications of the Michigan Accountancy Law and passed the uniform CPA examination which is given in all states.

The new CPAs are: Andrew R. Bass, 26822 Regent; Daniel A. Descher, 26778 Northwestern; Michael E. Weiner, 27000 Franklin Road; and Roger L. Plate, 20300 Wildhern.

Arthur P. Skurka, 8544 Capital Oak Park is also a new CPA.

TEMPLE KOL AMI

To Our New Neighbors:

In this paper over the years you may have read some of our announcements about coming to West Bloomfield, breaking ground, starting construction, etc. We made some pretty strong statements about what we would and would not do. We lived up to those statements in every way and feel quite proud at having done so.

We would like to take this opportunity to tell you who we are and what we stand for. Our Temple was founded in 1956 by seven families, and although we are still a young and struggling congregation we are 250 families strong. On this point of size let us pause. Our by-laws clearly state that we may have no more than 300 families. Temple Kol Ami very strongly feels that particularly today in an age of too rapidly diminishing personal identity, that our Temple always retain the member-to-member and Rabbi-to-member identification and communication that we now enjoy.

Here also, it is the avowed policy of Temple Kol Ami that we are concerned structurally with an ADEQUATE facility. We build monuments with social action, try to instill in our children a true understanding of Judaism thru a study of Torah, a practice of Talmud, and with a moral commitment to our fellow man. We hope our monuments will be those of spirit, not of bricks and mortar.

A word about our Rabbi, Rabbi Ernst Conrad is in the truest biblical sense a scholar and a teacher. A religious teacher, moral teacher, ethics teacher and more to us as congregants...he is quite simply...our friend.

Temple Kol Ami enjoys a good mix of young marrieds with no children, couples with children of all ages, and those whose children are grown with families of their own. All temples have these types of members. Temple Kol Ami wants, needs, desires, and gets the daring and exuberance of youth, the steadfastness and dedication of those with children and the wisdom and experience of our older congregants. We all, at all ages, are not just members we are participants.

Temple Kol Ami is a liberal Reform Temple. Social action is at the heart of Judaism and therefore Temple Kol Ami is proud of its record. Like Avia, we're trying harder...

Do not be misled into thinking we are a grim group. Nothing could be further from the truth. From the pulpit to the pews, to our many parties, joy and laughter abound. This Sunday, we're having a party. Non-members who may wish to know more about us are welcome.

If you are one of the above, give us a call. We would love to have you join us.
