Alma conducts orientation

A Farmington and Farmington Hills resident are among those students who will receive orientation at Alma College on August 27.

They are: Karen Weber, 2666 Greythorne Trail, Farmington; and Ann Simunek, 25194 Westmoreland, Farmington Hills.

Gaylord joins college staff

Mark Gaylord, formerly of Farmington, has been appointed instructor of administration of justice and sociology at Culver-Stuckton College, Canton, Mo.

Gaylord formerly was an instructor of sociology at North Central Michigan College.

He received an MA in sociology from Wayne State University in 1971 and has a BA in psychology from Central Michigan University.

Before joining the faculty of North Central, he was lecturer in sociology and psychology in Malaysia.

Heart attack rescue classes are taught

The Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department, in cooperation with the American Red Cross, will offer certified courses in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and first aid this fall.

The CPR classes will be held from 7-10 p.m. on three consecutive Thursdays, beginning Sept. 16, in the Hills City Hall Council Chambers, 31555 Eleven Mile.

The first aid classes will be held from 7-10 p.m. on Thursdays, beginning Oct. 6, in Farmington City Hall Council Chambers, 29800 Liberty.

CPR is the vital life-saving method of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and external heart massage that forces the heart to pump blood and prevent the possibility of brain damage which can occur in a matter of minutes.

Instruction includes lectures, demonstrations, films and actual practice. Upon successful completion of the course, a CPR certification card will be awarded.

The registration fee of $3 is waived for senior adults.

THE SEVEN-WEEK course in first aid will teach students how to cope with bleeding, shock, fractures, stoppage of breathing, and other emergency situations.

The instruction includes lectures, discussion, demonstrations, actual practice and films.

To enroll, participants must be at least 13 years of age, or have completed seventh grade.

A first-aid certification card will be awarded upon completion of the course.

The registration fee of $3 is waived for those 60 years and older. The Red Cross Handbook and bandages are $2.50, and they will be available for purchase at the first meeting.

Registration for both courses will be accepted by mail or in person, at the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Office, 31555 Eleven Mile, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Registrations will be accepted until the first night of each class. Inquiries will be taken by calling the registration office, 474-6115.
