LADIES AUXILIARY OF HOLY CROSS GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH of Farmington Hills has elected Mrs. William Hinkley of Birmingham as its president. Her vice president is Mrs. Costas Koutouras of Dearborn.

Other officers are Mrs. James Mauds, of Farmington Hills, Mrs. George Paron of Dearborn Heights and Mrs. Harry Starnas of Southfield.

The society, organized in 1931, is a primary mainstay organization in Greek Orthodox parishes throughout the United States and Canada. Their main function and goal is to provide moral and financial assistance, whether it concerns children, adults, places or purpose in the Greek Orthodox communities.

The officers will receive their oath of office Sept. 11, in the church on 25225 Middle Belt.

All of the members of the group are currently involved in preparing for their annual bazaar, set for Sept. 15-16 in Franklin Community Church, in Franklin.

PARENTS WITHOUT PARTNERS. Farmington-Southfield chapter, meet Sept. 8, at 8:30 p.m. in St. Francis Knights of Columbus Hall, 21900 Middle Belt. All meetings of the chapter are open to all parents without partners, only.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY. Farmington branch, invite interested persons to join in a meeting at 7 p.m., Sept. 8, in Farmington Hills Community Library, 33737 Twelve Mile. The group will participate in a review of information about cancer, and what services the branch is providing in this community.

All meetings of the group are held the second Thursday of the month. Members are preparing now to sell carnations for the society all day Saturday at shopping centers throughout the two communities.

CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S CLUB has set Sept. 8 as its deadline for reservations for its Sew and Show Luncheon. The luncheon is set for noon Sept. 12 in Mayflower Meeting House, on Main St. at Ann Arbor Trail in Plymouth.

The program, "See What You Can Sew," will be conducted by a representative of Hinkle's of Farmington. Music comes from Steve and Jo Miller under the heading "Sew La Ti Do" and the speaker is Marge Flora, of Bloomfield Hills whose topic is "Pattern for Living."

Nursery facilities are available. Reservations for child care and the luncheon will be taken by calling Jo Cone, 477-3825.

SENIOR CITIZENS SOCIAL CLUB, of Farmington, meet at noon Sept. 9 in First United Methodist Church social hall, on Grand River and Warner. Guests are asked to bring a sandwich for lunch. Cards will be available for afternoon recreation.

SWEET ADELINES. Farmington Hills chapter, will sing at Twelve Oaks Mall, at 7 p.m. Sept. 13. Afterward, members will remain in the area to hand out an information sheet about the chapter, and give invitations to all interested women to attend their membership party.

The party is set for 7:30 p.m. Sept. 20 in University Hills Christian Center, on Farmington Road, south of Twelve Mile.

Sweet Adelines is a barbershop chorus of women. Membership is open to all women over the age of 18. Rehearsals are held each Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m., in the center.

Inquiries will be taken by calling Marge Murray, 625-6243.

FARMINGTON AMATEUR RADIO CLUB meets at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 14, in Room 101-G, Farmington High School, 32000 Shiawassee.

All meetings of the club are open to all persons interested in amateur radio.

FARMINGTON MUSICALS, in conjunction with its annual membership tea, will observe the National Federation of Music Clubs' Crusade for Strings, at 12:30 p.m. Sept. 14, in Farmington Community Library, 23550 Liberty.

The musicals, an affiliate of the Michigan and National Federations of Music Clubs, will present, in recital, violinist Susan Smetsted and cellist Paul Di Blasi.

The musicals, which has a membership of residents from 15 communities in Oakland and Wayne Counties, invites those with an interest in good music to attend its membership tea. Reservations will be taken by Mrs. James McElroy, 476-6221.

AMERICAN BUSINESS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION (ABWA). Bloomfield chapter, rounds up new members Sept. 15 in Bloomfield Hills' Kingsley Inn.

Social hour will begin at 6:30 p.m., followed by dinner and a brief meeting.

ABWA enrollment events are held semi-annually to introduce the local chapter to business women in the area. Its goal is to help women in business advance through education, increased competence and upgraded professional skills and business attitudes.

Membership is by invitation only. Inquiries will be taken by Carol Striber, at her home, 729-1729, or Karen Henderson, at her place of business, 547-8888.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS. Farmington Hills chapter 2088, meet at 1:30 p.m. Sept. 16 in Farmington Hills Library, on Twelve Mile between Orchard Lake and Farmington Road.

The meeting is open to all persons over 55 years of age, retired or not.

Speaker for the day is Irene Aubertin whose topic is "World Medical Relief," which she conceived and directs. A documentary film will accompany her talk.
