

WSU sets registration

Wayne State University's College of Lifelong Learning is offering a variety of courses at the Southfield extension for fall 1977. The courses are taught at the extension center, 2610 Eleven Mile, and at Southfield High School, Ten Mile and Lakeside roads. Most classes will meet Sept. 29 through Dec. 16. Requests for course schedules and registration materials should be directed to: Office of Student Services, Wayne State University, 2610 Eleven Mile, Southfield 48034. The telephone number is 358-2101. Counseling services also are available at the same location at no cost to the individual. Credit offerings include the Weekend College Program, which leads to a Bachelor of General Studies degree. The program, school officials say, is specifically designed to meet the educational needs of working men and women and homemakers. For admission to the program, students must have a high school diploma or a GED certificate. Classes meet at 80 locations scattered throughout southeastern Michigan. The School of Business Administration offers credit courses at the undergraduate and graduate level.

Providence volunteers honored

Special recognition was given to Providence Hospital's teen volunteers in the Candystriper and American Red Cross Youth programs at a recently informal program. Certificates were presented to the young volunteers by Sister Jane Burger, director of pastoral care, and Dorothy Wood, director of volunteer services. The young volunteers logged more than 2,000 hours of service. Twenty boys and girls participated in the Red Cross project. Their assignments included the admitting office, mail and menu delivery and rehabilitation services. The Candystripers, whose program is sponsored by Our Lady of Providence League, worked primarily on the nursing units where their duties included answering patient requests for such items as water or an extra blanket, assisting patients at meal time, transporting patients in wheelchairs, arranging and delivering flowers and running errands for the nursing staff. Candystripers from Southfield included: Christine Gallatin, Marie Guerrini, Dianne Isley, Amy Levy, Anne Nishon, Susan Shimoura, Margie Sokalski, Michelle Weinbaum and Laurie Winkelman. Paula Nishon of Lathrup Village also was a candystriper. American Red Cross volunteers included: Ann Batulis, Alan Burnstein, Maral Horowitz, Andy Markowitz, Lori Posar and Julie Rubin, all of Southfield, and Peter Weiss of Lathrup Village.
