North tops Western

Hawk netters begin with win

The people at Farmington Harrison High had better make room in their athletic trophy case. Harrison's girls' tennis team, which has won three-straight Western Six League titles, looks strong again this fall.

Coach Bernie Goldstein's Harrison girls opened their season with a 4-3 victory over non-league West Bloomfield at home last Monday. The key match was No. 1 doubles, where the Harrison team of Audrey Levin and Carrie Hajjar defeated Julie Hardin and Carol Christensen, 7-6, 6-2.

Harrison has one of the strongest players around in senior Janice Lukasiewicz. Against West Bloomfield, Lukasiewicz stopped Kathy August, 6-3, 6-4, in the No. 1 singles match.

"We should win the title again," said the confident Goldstein. "Janice is a very strong player, and my fourth singles players are real tough. And our first doubles team came through for us. It was a real pleasant surprise."

In other area girls' tennis last Monday, North Farmington defeated non-league Walled Lake Western, 6-1; Southfield High stopped Farmington High, 6-1; and Birmingham Marian downed Farmington Our Lady of Mercy, 5-2.

North Farmington, which finished second to Westland John Glenn in the Northwest Suburban League last season, has a good No. 1 singles player in Roz Pann, who had an easy time with Western's Kim Spencer, 6-0, 6-1.

North's No. 1 doubles team of Carolyn Chupinski and Lisa Lackey blanked Sharon Wilson and Carry Kalhorn, 6-0, 6-0. In the No. 2 doubles match, North's Kelly O'Dell and Jan Sommerville downed Carman Kaucher and Debbie Salisz, 6-0, 6-2.

Our Lady of Mercy has a new coach in Betty Spreen, a 1976 graduate of the all-girl parochial school in Farmington Hills.

"I played on the team when I was at Mercy, and it's really something to be the coach and talk to the other coaches on a different level," said Spreen, now a college student at Detroit's Mercy College. "But I really enjoy working with these kids. They're all hard workers and willing to learn."

Against Marian, Mercy won the last two singles matches. In No. 3 singles, Beth Hackett defeated Carol Verbiest, 6-4, 6-3. Lisa Orlando handled Michelle McDonald, 6-2, 6-2, in No. 4.

Farmington High had a bright spot in No. 4 singles against Southfield High. Farmington's Connie Weaver defeated Roberta Goldman in three sets, 3-6, 6-1, 6-3. Southfield's top singles player, Marcie Brown, won on default.

The girls' tennis season continues on Thursday (Sept. 15), when North Farmington entertains Waterford Mott. Farmington High travels to Walled Lake Western, and Farmington Harrison moves to Southfield-Lathrup. Mercy plays next on Monday (Sept. 19) at home against Harper Woods Regina. All meets begin at 4 p.m.

The Stroh bowling team is fast building up an unusual record in the all-star leagues and gaining national recognition as well.

For the third straight year, the team has rolled to the top of the national honor roll in the early weeks of the season.

Although the present campaign is only two weeks old, the team posted a 3371 series last week at Orchard Lanes . The series included an 1176 game and moved Stroh to the top in the nation in both categories.

Last year, the team rolled a 3509 with a 1261 game and the counts held up for most of the season.

Strangely, Tom Vallone, the new man on the team this year, paced his mates with a 699 series.

DON'T SELL Penny Behn and her mates short in the men's section of the all-star league. In their debut two weeks ago, they won two of their three games.

To prove it wasn't a fluke, they came right back last week with a two game victory again and rolled a 2960 series to do it.

They won the first game by four pins and then rolled a 1043 game to take the second by seven pins.

THE LADIES did a great job, too on another front. Bowling in the latest mixed team league—Little Caesars at Westland—Mary Mohacsi paced the women with a 603 and her team posted a 1002.

Ironically, Mary and her mates lost the big game, but put up quite a battle. While Mary showed the way with her double—century game,Cheryl Mertz took runner-up honors with 578 and Marion Saunders was third with 566.

Tony Monastiere opened with a 267 to post a 667 to lead the men, with Bob Goike Jr., in second place with 646 and Randy Ortwine in third poisition with a 644.

ANN SETLOCK is enjoying one of the best starts of her career. Day manager of Garden Lanes, she showed the way to the women in the Ladies Major League opener last week at Crown Lanes and came right-back to pace the ladies classic at Garden Lanes with a 599.

FRED HAMLIN, proprietor of Farmington Lanes, has another potential star in the family.

Linda showed her ability in the Teen Classic last week with a 203 in 523. " and that's our fourth family member to do well, " Fred said.

In the parent-youth league Louis Garneau rolled a 188 and his partner, Eric Terry, was one pin behind with 187.

In the prep-star league, Fred McNeese posted a 219 and Mike Lemieux a 184. In the mixed classic, Jack Hille posted a 217 in 603and Myrna Dunn a 203 in 551.

TONY COLLINS moved into the spot light when the Pin Busters, a new league, opened the season at Plaza Bowl. All he did was link games of 184, 229, and 269 for a 673. In the Plymouth Men's league, Joe Barbee was top man with gamesof 234 and 220 in 635.

ANN SCHWARTZ took top honors in the Ladies Opener at Plymouth Bowl with a 233.

KEVIN AND BERT HOLMSTROM of Farmington Lanes, landed in 10th place in the national family tournament held recently in Washington. They rolled a handicap count of 2277 for six games in the Major division.

Lisa and Judy Thompson of Melvindale finished 12th the junior division with 2309 and the Canton Township team of Bob and Rudy Pittway placed 14th in the prep division with 2312.

DOROTHY TORYCA got off to a good start in the Livonia Lasies Classic by taking the third of three games, 204-23—227 and the series with 498-69—567.

In the other games, Madeline Jackson won the first with 157-54—211 and Tate Sears took the second with a 164-46—210.

Golf classic begins

A select field of 108 Michigan Golf Professionals will tee off at 8 a.m. Sept. 17 and 18 in the Royal Oak PGA Golf Classic at the Royal Oak Golf Club.

The field will include 14 former and present Michigan PGA and Michigan Open champions. including tour regulars Randy Erskine, Gary Groh and D.A. Weibring.

They will make two tours of the Royal Oak course, which is on Thirteen Mile, five blocks east of Woodward.

This year the prize money is increased to $20,000, with first place paying $3,500, making it the richest tournament of the year for Michigan professionals.

Money raised for charity is increased to $8,000 with the money going to the Royal Oak Boys' Club, the American Cancer Society, the YMCA and the March of Dimes.

Prize money and money going to charity has been provided by 160 area business people and individuals.

Lynn Janson, a professional from Grafid Rapids Green Ridge Country Club, will return to defend the title he won last year.

Al Mengert of Oakland Hills Country Club in Birmingham, the 1975 winner, and John Molenda of Knollwood Country Club in West Bloomfield, the 1974 winner, will also play in the tournament.

Other familiar names in the field are 1977 Michigan Open champion Tom Deaton of Franklin Hills Country Club and Gene Bone of Bay Pointe Country Club in West Bloomfield.

Some of the younger players competing are Carl Patron of Birmingham Country Club, Buddy Whitten of Franklin Hills and Tom Fortuna of Oakland Hills.
