New company presents 'Fiddler on the Roof' limited, who has had several years of experience in theater in the Detroit

Group returns to the Pontch Vineyard. Detroit musical group, has returned to Detroit's Top of the Pontch for a two-month stay, through Oct. 29.

Oct. 29.
Led by Joe Rosanova. Vineyard has been a local favorite for 10 years.
Vineyard plays for dining and dancing from 7:30 p.m.. Tuesdays through Saturdays at the Top. on the 25th floor of Hotel Pontchartrain.

A Birmingham resident, Premin is the purchasing director for the Troy Community School District.

In addition to starring as Tevye (which he has done which before). Premin is producing and directing "Fiddler on the Roof." With this pro-duction, he hopes to establish a per-manent repertory theater in the metro-politan area.

FOR THIS SHOW he has chosen a cast which includes members of the Rackham Symphony Choir, the Windsor Light Opera Company, and drama teachers and students from the area.

tion. Ms. Premin, a music teacher in Wayne, is a graduate of the Univer-sity of Michigan and has wide musical experience. Her "Matchmaker" solo is one of the highlights of the play.

"Fiddler" is being staged in the drama facility at Troy Athens High School.

Woodwinds play .

The Midtown Cafe in Birmingham is offering a musical experience along with a Sunday brunch. The Renaissance Wind Quintet appears from noon to 3 p.m.

Bill Premin is starring as Tevye and his wife, Judith, is Tzeitle in the Performing Artists Unlim-
