St. Paul's Starts New Buildings

Groundbreaking ceremonies for St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church are set for 2:30 p.m. Sunday, June 22, at the new site on Farmington Rd. north of Six Mile in Livonia. The Rev. Winfred Koelpin, pastor of St. Paul's, will be in charge of the ceremonies, with the Rev. Leonard Koenig, of St. Peter's Lutheran Church of Plymouth as guest speaker.

The event will mark the beginning of construction of the new church, school and fellowship hall to cost $737,399.

The present location at 15218 Farmington Rd. has been sold to the City of Livonia and is to be vacated by September 1970.

Relocation is planned well in advance of that date, according to Herbert Nelson, chairman of the building committee, and Edwin M. Slesak Sr., finance committee chairman.

A special meeting of church voters approved contracts June 19, Lindholm Associates of Livonia are the architects, and Livonia National Bank, the principal financing agency.
