Cherry Hill started out with a full-lount zone press defersive alignment, then shifted to a tight man-to-man if the Trojans successfully moved the ball downcourt. "It was just total har-assment," described Clarenceville coach Bob Wolf.

While the defensive strategy generally worked, Cherry Hill eventually found itself in foul trouble. Two Spartans fouled out and the winners total-led 29 personals.

Clarenceville, however, did not take advantage from the line as well as it might have, making 20 d si attempts. Bill Peterson and Jim McPhail each netted 24 points for the Trojans and Jim McCamant reaped nies, the latter all from the free-throw line. "Peterson (also with 14 rebounds) did a good job and McPhail played an excellent ballgamer," said Wolf. "Their (Spartans') transition from defense to offense was just awesome," said Wolf.

with goals by Andy Marshall and Steve Hoke. Lathrup added two more mark-ers in the second stanza as Gordon Lawton and Scott Sobolewski found the range. Stevenson was held scoreless in the period.

Hoke ledt the ice with a slashing major at 2:45 of the third period, and Sevenson didn't miss out on the power-play opportunity. Because of the major, Hoke couldn't return to the game after Mike Burr scored for Stewnson. Stewart and Guerro added goals with Lathrup still shorthanded. Dave Wanagad opened the scoring in the period with a goal at :44.
