

MRS. GILBERT CLAEYS
(Sheila Sandrock)

Vows Unite Pair Greenfield Village

Sheila Sandrock and Gilbert Claeys recently recited their wedding vows at a ceremony in the Martha-Mary Chapel, Greenfield Village.

The Rev. Harold Palthorp, of the Mt. Hope Methodist Church, Detroit, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The couple's parents are Mrs. Coy Sandrock of Livonia, and Walter Sandrock of Northville, and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Caragie of Detroit.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a white linen gown with an A-line silhouette, Viennese lace banded the portrait neckline, hem and chapel train. She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and spring rye.

The bride chose her sister-in-law, Sandra Sandrock, of Farmington, as her matron of honor. She wore a jewel pink

Couple Wed In Home

Mrs. Virginia A. VanAlstine, of Livonia, and George F. Finger, of Joliet, Ill., were married Saturday, Aug. 3, in an evening ceremony in the bride's Livonia Avenue home.

Dr. George Sweet officiated in the double-ring rites. Attendants for the couple were Mrs. James Frank and the bridegroom's brother, William N. Finger.

A reception in the bride's home and a wedding dinner at the Thunderbird Inn followed the ceremony. The couple will live on Lyndon Avenue.

father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white lace, with a Dior bow securing a shoulder-length illusion veil.

Marianne Straith, of Ann Arbor, was maid of honor, and the bride's sister, Barbara J. Ford, was bridesmaid.

They wore floor-length dresses of dotted swiss with matching Dior bows.

DENNIS KUCHARNEK, of Detroit, assisted the bridegroom as best man. The ushers were George and Timothy Mass, brothers of the bridegroom, and Ensign Thomas Grunden.

Mrs. Ford chose a blue lace dress, and the bridegroom's mother was in pink silk.

A reception for 150 guests in Roma Hall, Livonia, followed the ceremony.

The couple will live at Long Beach, Calif., where the bridegroom is an engineering officer aboard the USS James E. Kyes.
