Rally lifts Farmington cagers

Northville High took a 124 lead in the early going of its non-league game a Farmington High last Tuesday, and it looked like another long night for Caach Rich Roy's Falcons. But Roy just couldn't see his team go down to defeat for the seventh time this season. So he took action.

HIGHLAND PARK - HARRISON

It's usually bad news for Farmington Harrison when it plays powerful Highland Park in their annual non-league basketball game — and this year's meeting was no exception. Highland Park, which has one of the strongest Class A teams in the state this season, wereded Harrison, 71-45, last Tuesday in the Hawks' gym. The loss dropped Coach Mike Teachman's Harrison team to 1-6 this season. A bad second quarter wid Harrison's downfall as the Parkers blitzed the home team. 174. Three Highland Park players finished in double figures. Tony Bail led with 19 points, and Howard Richartson and Jeff Hora added 18 and 10 respectively. # Franklin nips Canton Livonia Franklin cagers saw their 10-point first quarter lead dwindle to a tie at the end of regulation play but quickly regrouped and controlled action during the extra three minutes enroute to a 76-72 mol-league victory over Plymouth Canton Tuesday night. The victory raised the Patriots' record to 5-3 while Canton dropped to 2-4 for the season. Franklin jumped into a quick 16-6 first-quarter advantage but was victimized by a Chief 28-point second period which tied the score, 34-34, at halltime.

period which tied the score, 34-34, at-halftime. The contest remained close through-out the second half with both squads trading baskets. Patroit Jeff Reich tipped in Chris Baker's jump shot at the buzzer to send the game into overtime at 68-68. Franklin then controlled the play, outscoring the Chiefs 8-4 in the extra period.

GC WEST-GC EAST

Jeff McCann grabbed a rebound and hit a close-range shot with 18 seconds remaining in overtime Tuesday to give Garden City West a pulsating 30-28 con-league basketball victory over crosstown rival Garden City Bast. For West, the victory broke a five-game losing streak dating all the way back to Dec. 2. For East, the hearthreaking defeat was the third by two points in succession and seventh without a win this season. Neither team had a particularly good shooting night from the field, according to East coach Billy Joe Young.

His statistics indicated that the victorious Tigers sank 15 of 38 shots for 40 per cent, while the visiting Panthers canned only 12 of 37 for a miserable 21 per cent mark.

"We played pretty close," said West coach Chris Babler. "Neither team has been winning much and both were working for the good shot."

Pat Dybas and Gerald Tatro each scored it points for West.
