Madonna offers deaf services

Activities for deaf and hearing-impaired adults will be provided in several tri-county locations in the winter by Madonna College, Livonia. Sign language will be provided.
 "Preparing your income tax" will be presented Sunday nights at the Detroit Silent Club, beginning in early February.
 The club will have a session on recognizing vital signs of blood pressure. A second session will be at St. John's Episcopal Church, Detroit.
 This will be presented in cooperation with the American Red Cross and will begin in January and February.
 A 10-week session on gardening will be presented in cooperation with the Macomb County Extension Service in late January or February.

How to be a home handyman will be the subject of a series of workshops in Waterford Township in cooperation with the schools.
 In addition, Madonna College will provide a sign language interpreting service for any adult education classes offered by the Madison Heights School District.

THE CLASS should have 10 or more hearing-impaired or deaf persons to be eligible for the service.
 A schedule of these classes, which begin Jan. 16, can be obtained from the Madison Heights School District.
 For further information call Sharon Medrum at Madonna College, 425-8000.
