VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS Commander Buster Weatherford played Santa Claus to children at the Christmas party Post 2269 gave last month.

While the children were being entertained by the Livonia Ladies Kitchen Band and getting presents, another segment of the post was out delivering food baskets to the needy.

The children's Christmas party is but one of the group's annual events. Other programs sponsored by the post and its auxiliary are ongoing youth activities, Junior Girls units, rehabilitation for veterans, giving service to veteran's hospitals and homes and the Voice of Democracy scholarship.

A prompt answer to your question saves more than time.

When you call Consumers

Power with a question about your bill, it's my job, as a Customer Service Representative, to answer it. And with the video terminals we now have, I can usually do that in no time at all.

The reason is that nearly all the information I need about your account is right at my fingertips. This means we save time - which means we save money. And these savings really add up on days when I get one hundred or more calls.

I know how you care about quick accurate answers, and how you care about savings - because I'm a customer too.
