When the roads get slick, it's sometimes hard to stay on the road—as the driver of this car on Telegraph north of Nine Mile learned last week. No one was reported injured in the accident, a typical scene on Southfield roads last week. Southfield police said that last Tuesday alone, nearly 40 minor auto accidents were reported. (Photo by Allen Schlossberg)

Rookie debate team takes championship

A novice debate team from Southfield High School has taken a state championship and given coach Arthur Voisin his first state victory in 17 years.

The novice team beat 18 other teams to claim the Novice Debate Championship during recent competition at Marshall High School.

Winning debaters are seniors Mike Hawkins and Robert Beattie, who argued on the negative side of the debate, and juniors Shari Wenokur and Robert Kaner, who took the affirmative side.

Novice debaters are first-year debaters only and may come from all class levels.

The debate topic this year was "Resolved: That the federal government should establish comprehensive medical care for all citizens in the United States." The novice team claimed the victory with a 7-1 record after beating teams from Southfield,

WMU honors Southfielder

Western Michigan University recently initiated 52 students with outstanding first year academic records into Alpha Lambda Delta or Phi Eta Sigma, two national scholastic honor societies.

Among the students initiated into Phi Eta Sigma was Dave Barahal, a sophomore, and son of Mr. and Mrs.
