There is no need to wonder where the bowling stars of tomorrow will come from. They already are budding in the youth leagues and, in some cases, really making their presence felt.

One of the bright prospects is Dale Williams who competes in the youth league at Westland Bowl. Only 16 years old last week, he put together games of 213, 255 and 235 for a 703—one of the few series that high ever bowled by a junior in the metropolitan area.

When it was ended and he was accepting congratulations, he said that he had furnished his own birthday gift as he was 17 years old last Sunday.

On another front, Kelly Campbell, a 16-year-old from Muskegon, showed the way to his elders in the monthly tournament sponsored by the Bonanza Michigan Majors Association at Super Bowl in Canton. Campbell averaged 288 while winning 10 of his 12 matches, and tying another.

He joined the majors in August and must have signed papers by his parents each month to permit him to bowl in the championship event.

AFTER MANY YEARS at Motor Lanes, the Bowlerettes League has decided to move and next season will be bowling at Luxury Lanes on Nine Mile. It marks the second move by the all-star women, as the ladies major that bowls on Wednesday night moved from Pine Tree to Crown Lanes last season.

TWO GARDEN CITY BOWLERS—Don Venchenko and Rolland C

rraway—have made a bold bid for a heavy portion of the prize money in Dick Rau's tournament in Flint.

Venchenko shot an 875 series with his "spot" and is holding the lead in the singles division and if this score holds up it will be worth $2,000. Billy Golembewski, of Farmington, is the actual pinfall leader with 857.

In the hard-pin portion of the tournament, Carraway is in third place, worth $1,750. He fired a 535 and again Golembewski is in the lead with a 547.

BY WINNING two games and the series, Doris Goryca took top honors in the Livonia Lanes ladies classic. After Betty Markwardt won the first game with 180-24—214, Doris took the second with 217-24—241 and the third with 212-24—236. That gave her the series with 615-72—687.

MARY MOHACSIQ CONTINUED HER RAPID PACE in the Little Caesar Classic at Westland Bowl. She had games of 226 and 213 in a 617 series to pace the women, with Terry Kosowski in the second place with 595.

Rick Capaldi showed the way to the men with a 676 that included games of 241 and 235. Bryan Presley was his closest rival with a 640 that included a 247 opener.

Other women who shot well included Virginia Lenk with 218 in 585 and Sherry Nekro with games of 221 and 202 in 583.

In the Monday men's league, Carl Bowling was the big gun with a 276 in 669.

THE VANERWILLS—Gary and Jan—dominated the Thursday night mixed league at Farmington Lanes. Gary had a 242 in 623 and Jan contributed a 224 in 577.

In the Friday noon classic, Joan Takai was the big gun with 219 in 611.

DON McHUGH was the big man among Moose bowlers at Garden Lanes. He fired a 637 to take top place, while Harry Topalian, was the runner-up with a 615.

In the St. John Bosco league, Frank Hassell took top place with a 624 and Hank Kukielka was next in line with 608.

LOU MILLER had one of his best days in the senior citizens league at Woodland Lanes. He scattered the pins for a 246 game to be crowned the day's winner in the gay nineties circuit.

In the early birds league, Carol Stocker showed the way with a 557 that was made possible by games of 211 and 226, and Georgianna Tension paced the ladies league with a 875 that included games of 206 and 210. She has an average of 142.

In the Franklin High school league at Woodland Lanes, Steve Ray, with a 134 average, fashioned a 205 and Lauri Shipa went 191 pins over her average with a 489. Barry Rawley, with a 116 average, went 96 pins over with a 444, and in the bucks and does league, Rich Sackett had a high game of 247.

IN THE SENIOR CITIZENS league at Plaza Lanes, Carl Spehrang, with a 163 average, fashioned games of 117, 193 and 213 for 583. Over at Plymouth Bowl, Leo Sochacki was high man in the Chevy league with a 233 game in a 619 series.

Over 30 leaders win

Sawyer-Fuller Funeral Home and Southfield Holiday Inn both won their Over 30 Hockey League games last week to stay deadlocked for first place in the eight-team league. Both teams have 22 points.

Sawyer-Fuller lifted its record to 10-32 with a 2-1 victory over Suburban Sports Center. Sawyer's Frank Goldberg opened the scoring with a goal assisted by Ray Miras and Roy Brandon. Elio Marulli put the winners up by two with an unassisted goal late in the first period.

After a scoreless second period, Ralph Wolfstrom broke through for Suburban with a goal set up by Jim Maloney and Bill Boyd. The loss dropped Suburban to 6-7-2. Holiday Inn, meanwhile, kept pace by beating Roger Penske Chevrolet, 2-1. Holiday Inn has a 9-2-4 record.

Dimitrios Lampros scored the winning goal for Holiday Inn with the assists going to Ralph Saporin and Denny Smith. Saporin had opened the scoring with a goal assisted by John Thomas and Smith. Penske tied it when John O'Dell scored from Mike Nave.

In another game last week, Larry Dunn scored a pair of goals, and Joe George and Bob Orlov each added one as Spartan Concrete came from behind to whip Concourse Camera, 4-3. Spartan is a step behind the league leaders with a 9-5-1 record.

I look for trouble- and sometimes the trouble is no insulation.

I'm a Consumers Power gas service man, and it's my job to troubleshoot. If people smell gas in their homes, they call me and I get there fast.

But sometimes while I'm working in a customer's home, I find more trouble—like no insulation. You'd be surprised to learn how many homes I go into that aren't adequately insulated.

Some customers tell me they can't afford insulation. But what they really can't afford is to pay for all the natural gas it's costing them by not insulating. Over the long winter, insulation doesn't cost money—it saves money and scarce energy. It's the best thing you can do to your home, and for your gas bill. Believe me, I know. I get a gas bill at my home every month just like you.
