Bank promotes Heiss

RICHARD HEISS

Richard Heiss of Farmington has been promoted to senior vice-president and senior trust officer at Manufacturer's Bank. Heiss heads the bank's personal trust division.

Heiss joined the bank in 1967 in the trust department. He was named an officer in 1969, and in 1975 he was promoted to first vice-president and senior trust officer. He is chairman of the bank's trust committee.

Heiss earned his bachelor's degree from Michigan State University, his LL.B. from Detroit College of Law and his graduate law degree from Wayne State University.

He serves in the probate and tax sections of the State Bar of Michigan. He also is affiliated with the property and probate section of the Detroit Bar Association.

He serves on the executive committees of the American Bankers Association and Michigan Bankers Association trust divisions and the board of trustees of the Detroit College of Law.

Heiss is a member of the planned gifts committee of MSU's development fund.

Late registration at OCC is delayed

Late registration at Oakland Community College has been extended to Jan. 16-17 since the school was forced to close because of bad weather. Registration hours are 9-11 a.m., 1-4 and 6-8 p.m.

Museum quality

Crewel embroidery, worked with museum quality designs and techniques, will be taught by Zabel Arakelian in classes which begin Jan. 23 in Farmington Community Center. The instructor offers classes for the beginner and classes for those with some experience. Registration and inquiries will be taken by calling the center.
