Farmington artists' work in Scarab Club

Paintings of five members of the Farmington Artists Club are now in the current Silver Medal Exhibition of the Scarab Club, which runs through the month of February. The club is located at Farnsworth and John R., opposite the Institute of Arts, in Detroit.

Beth Yasenchak, a former member of the local club, won one of the nine painting awards, for her work called "Gold Dust."

Others whose works were chosen for the Silver Medal Exhibition are Louise Gaddis, for "Quiet Field," Gladys McMillan, "Still Life," Judy Gresser, "Double Image," and Ceil Surbruck, "Red."

Marjorie Chelstorp had two paintings chosen, "Aquarelle" and "Fourth Day."

The public is invited to view the exhibition from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays and from 2-5 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.
