

CAP assists public TV

Local Civil Air Patrol (CAP) members were part of the group's contingent assisting recently in phone pledges to public television.

Capt. E. Vornie Fret of Livonia, along with Farmington residents, Maj. William Corliss, Maj. William Mendoza and with Capt. Elizabeth Hoxer, were among 18 CAP personnel who donated more than 135 hours for the Channel 56 fund raising activity.

"CAP was delighted to assist public television, but our primary interest lies in flying," said Capt. Fret.

"We are an aerospace minded organization and our main purpose is search and rescue missions. Last year CAP flew more than 15,000 hours, many of them in life or death situations.

"We also conduct a youth motivation program for teens 13-17 with squadrons based throughout local communities.

Capt. Fret and Maj. Corliss represent Michigan Wing headquarters. Maj. Mendoza is squadron commander of the Farmington Cadet Squadron, while Capt. Hoxer serves as information officer to Evergreen Squadron.

For information on the Civil Air Patrol, write Capt. Fret at P.O. Box 3826, Center Line, 48015.

Egg decorating

Anastasia Volker returns to the Farmington Community Center next month to show how to decorate eggs, the Ukrainian way. Those who wish to learn the intricate art will have an option of afternoon or evening sessions beginning March 1, for the three-part workshop. Registration is necessary by calling the center, 477-8404.

Ibsen classic

Henrik Ibsen's classic, "A Doll's House," continues at the Farmington Players Barn Feb. 24-26 and March 2-4, and stars Ron Turek as Torvald Helmer and Jan Salisbury as his wife, Nora. The Victorian play of a young woman who recognizes that her marriage is a game and her life has no meaning outside of that marriage is the Farmington Players winter production. Tickets are available by calling the box office, 477-1066. (Staff photo by Harry Mauthe)
