The Parnes

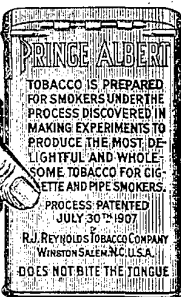

The Parnes, untrammelled by his surroundings, is seen in Bombay in all his wealth of height and dress. The men are, without exception, tall, they formed and stately and possess a robustness and beauty quite at contrast with their Hindu neighbors. Their street costume is a peculiar long white cotton gown, wide trousers of the same material and color and a tall miter shaped hat. They have a general reputation for sobriety, frugality and sagacity, and they seem to thoroughly understand the accumulation of fortune, in this respect resembling the Hebrews. The wealthiest residents of Bombay are Parnes.

Prince Albert is sold everywhere in 1907 and has for 15 years been the favorite of smokers. It is the only tobacco that has been in the hands of smokers for so long a time. PRINCE ALBERT the national joy smoke
R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., Winston-Salem, N. C. Copyright 1916 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

P. A. puts new joy into the sport of smoking!

YOU may live to be 110 and never feel old enough to vote, but it's certain—sure you'll not know the joy and contentment of a friendly old jimmy pipe or a hand rolled cigarette unless you get on talking-terms with Prince Albert tobacco!

P. A. comes to you with a real reason for all the goodness and satisfaction it offers. It is made by a patented process that removes bite and parch! You can smoke it long and hard without a come-back! Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality! Prince Albert affords the keenest pipe and cigarette enjoyment! And that flavor and fragrance and coolness is as good as that sounds. P. A. just answers the universal demand for tobacco without bite, parch or kick-back!

Introduction to Prince Albert isn't any harder than to walk into the nearest place, that sells tobacco and ask for "a supply of P. A." You pay out a little change, to be sure, but it's the cheer-fullest investment you ever made!

CHURCH NOTES

Show your patriotism by going to Sunday School.
Methodist Episcopal Sunday School

Methodist Church

REV. JAMES PRIESTLEY, MINISTER.

The bulletin board for the church has been on hand for a week or more, and will be put in place as soon as the weather permits. It is a very fine addition to our equipment, and to those who made it possible we tender our thanks.

The holidays are now a thing of the past; let us bend every effort to make the most of our services. The first service of the year, Sunday morning, will be one of real uplift. The pastor will bring "A New Year's Message." Do not miss it. There will be a number received into the membership of the church; will you be one?

Sunday School at the close of the morning service; all are invited to attend. The election of officers will be held next Monday evening at the church; everyone interested in the welfare of the school invited to be present.

The prayer meetings Thursday evening are means of blessing; make the most of these meetings during this year.

The evening services are of great interest. We had a fine congregation last Sunday evening; we expect it will be larger next Sunday evening. The pastor will preach a sermon of personal interest to all. You will find a cordial welcome at all our services. We shall have good music at every service.

Last Sunday evening occurred the last church service of the old year, which proved to be a very interesting and important one. The texts, as found in John 13:27 and Luke 4:20, were dwelt upon in a very instructive manner, bringing to mind many thoughts perhaps before never noticed. The singing of appropriate hymns and the anthem by the choir all added greatly to the spiritual uplift of the service. The church was prettily decorated in holly wreaths, evergreens and the beautiful Christmas flowers—poisettes. Above the choir on a scroll was the beautiful message—"Peace on earth, good will toward men." It was indeed a fine service for the closing of the church record for 1916.
