Reserve Drivers Needed On Tours

Families planning an extended auto vacation trip should have a reserve driver. Driver changes reduce fatigue and drowsiness, while giving the principal driver a chance to relax and enjoy the scenery.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richey of Hillcrest Avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Rena Dianne, to Robert Harold Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin of Burnley, Garden City. The bride-elect is a graduate of Stevenson High School and her fiancé graduated from Garden City West. He is attending the U.S. Navy Guided Missiles School at Virginia Beach, Va.

Bride's Veil Made By Nuns In India

Belgian nuns in a convent in India, made the cathedral-length lace veil Susan Ferrell Hume wore when she became the bride of Thomas Charles Wimsatt of Plymouth in an afternoon ceremony Saturday, June 21.

The Cathedral of Mary Our Queen in Baltimore was decorated with white carnations for the ceremony performed by the Rev. James B. O'Hara. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Chandler Hume of Baltimore and her husband is a son of Mrs. John Simms Wimsatt and the late Mr. Wimsatt of Plymouth.

The unusual bridal veil made in Mutugumoodu, Kerala State, was worn over a gown of silk and linen. Her bouquet was a cascade of white pansies and stephanotis.

JEANNE E. NORDIN, of Baltimore was maid of honor and wore aquamarine silk and linen and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow daisies and lily.

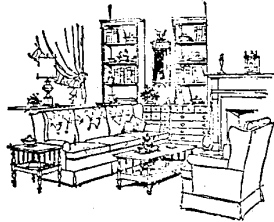

Bridesmaids in taffeta yellow silk with white daisy bouquets were Margaret Scott of Raleigh, N.C., Priscilla Martin of Media, Pa., Mindy Camp, Cornelia Harper, Christine Jeffers and Susan Baker, all of Baltimore.

JOHN SIMMS WIMSATT II of Plymouth served his brother as best man, and another brother, Robert, also of Plymouth, ushered. Other ushers were William P. and John Chandler Hume, Jr., brothers of the bride; John H. Scott
