Universalist Church

The services Sunday afternoon were well attended, and those present listened, as usual, to a very fine sermon by Rev. Moore, of Detroit. Mrs. Thompson, of Southfield, favored the congregation with a very nice solo, and the service, taken altogether, was very helpful and spiritually uplifting. We hope to hear Rev. Moore again in the near future.

The Ladies' Union met last Thursday with Mrs. Chamberlain and had a very enjoyable and instructive session. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Reed Hambleton, January 18th, on Grand River avenue. A good attendance is desired, and please bring your Bibles.
