SYRUP OF FIGS FOR A CHILD'S BOWELS

cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back a your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—caster oil calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought

How you hated them, how you tought against taking them.
With your children it's different. With your children it's different. Mothers who ching to the old form of physic simply don't recults what they do. The distiffers reculte what they do. The distiffers reculte what they do. The distiffers reculte what they do. The children's reculte with children's reculter's and bowels need channing, sive only delictions "Catifferia Syrup of Figs. Its action is positive, but geathe. Million of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children fore to take it, that it never falls to clean the liver; and bowels and pries on the sixuanch, and that a teaspoontal given today sayes a sick child tomerow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.
