LIFE'S CRUCIBLE.

It was said of Diderot that in his inviolable optimism he was like one of the old alchemists, who always found gold in his crucible because he had first put it there. That is what the wise man, the instructed soul, learns to do, for life consists always of what we ourselves put into it.

"Mallbran's Generosity."

Mallbran, the celebrated mezzo soprano, who was born at Paris in 1802 and died at Manchester, England, in 1838, was beloved for her amiability, generosity, and professional enthusiasm. Her benefactions amounted to such considerable sums that her friends were frequently obliged to interfere for the purpose of regulating her finances.

"QUALITY"

With us Quality is more than a mere advertising term. It means a product that at every point has the maximum worth of materials, workmanship and finish. It includes the "know how," the ability to interpret and give expression to the best in style. Represents superior judgment in the selection of goods, stands for more skill, greater durability and greater value for the money. We have found it best to sell goods of quality.
