I was absolutely helpless, limbs all drawn out of shape, when two days to live by consultation of doctor, when I hit upon this extraordinary remedy which has cured me completely. I will gladly send to any sufferer a bottle sufficient for several treatments for the same at 35 cents which only costs the medicine and postage for sending same.

CHURCH NOTESMethodist Church

Rev. James Priestley, Minister. The service last Sunday evening in charge of the Gideons of Detroit was very largely attended. The meeting was a most interesting one, and the address of the evening by W. E. Henderson, national Bible Secretary, was very telling. We shall be glad to have these men with us again.

The morning service at the regular hour 10:30, when the pastor will preach the fourth of the series of sermons on the "Great Life Experiences of Jesus." The special theme for Sunday morning is "Passion in the Garden, or Gethsemane's Lone Struggle." You will get an inspiration from this message.

Last Sunday morning was stormy but there was a fine attendance at Sunday School, and we are looking for a much larger attendance Sunday. Prayer meeting Thursday evenings. The topic for Thursday, March 29, will be "Love—The Greatest of These." 1 Cor. 13:13; John 3:16; Rom. 5:8; 2 Cor. 13:14-15; John 15:9-13.

Sunday evening service at 7 o'clock is one that all in the community should attend. At these services the present day appeal of the gospel message is presented. "How to see Wonderful Things" will be the subject for Sunday evening.

Easter Sunday is not far away. April 8th is the date, and let us plan to make it a day of great blessing. A fine program is being prepared for the morning service.

Universalist Church

Sunday the services in the church edifice will begin at 3 o'clock. Rev. Hopp is expected to fill the pulpit and all are most cordially invited to hear him. Rev. Hopp is one of those rare spiritual minded disciples who presents the truth in a very gentle though forcible manner. It will pay you to hear him bringing the kingdom of God close enough to bear on your every-day life.

There will also be good music. Bear in mind the date Sunday next March 25th, at 3 o'clock. Come, expecting to hear good things.

The Ladies' Union held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Mary Sprague. After the regular order of business was over the 12th and 13th chapters of Matthew were read and discussed. Some musical selections were rendered on the piano; and a fine reading was given by Miss Jeanette Everett. This reading won second in a recent electionary contest at Pontiac, and was very much enjoyed by those present. The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Cloyes Steele on March 29th. All are welcome.

Baptist Church.

Rev. J. W. Salton, Pastor. Preaching at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 12 o'clock. Evening service 7 o'clock.

The Dorcas society will meet at the home of Mrs. Hough Friday. It will be an all-day meeting.

A large attendance was out to the prayer meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tripp and the splendid meeting was very helpful to all present. The next meeting at the home of Mrs. Harlan, next Wednesday evening.

Sunday will be Missionary Day. In the Sunday school a special program is being arranged. Everybody welcome.

Salem Evangelical

Rev. A. C. Stange will preach next Sunday morning at 10:45, eastern time, in the Farmington German church.

The Farmington Ladies' Aid meets on the first Wednesday in each month at the parsonage.
