

Canada Offers 160 Acres Free to Farm Hands

of Western Canada Land to Men Assisting in Maintaining Needed Grain Production Bonus

The demand for farm labor in Canada is great. As an inducement to secure the necessary help at once, Canada will give

ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY ACRES OF LAND FREE AS A HOMESTEAD

LAND FKEE AS A HOMESTEAD and allow the time of the farm laborer, who has filed on the land, to apply as residence duties, the same as if he actually had lived on it. This special concession is the reduction of one year in the time to complete duties. Two years residence instead of three as heretofore; but only to men working on the farms for at least six mouths in 1917. This appeal for farm help is in no way connected with enlistment for military service but solely to increase agricultural output. Awon derful opportunity to secure a farm and draw good wages at the same time. Canadian Government will pay all fare over one best per mile from St. Paul or Dulut ho Canadian destination.
