Just as in Life. Booth Tarkington said, in New York, the other day: "The average man treats spiritual-irm as a joke. An illustrator found out recently that I was interested in the subject, so he mushed upon me with a story about a widow who tried to get in touch with her deceased hus band. "The medium, after a good deal of rutile work, said to the widow: "The conditions this evening seem unfavorable I can't seem to establish communication with Mr. Smith. No Gasoline Required.
