Another enthusiastic mass meeting at the Town Hall last Saturday night, and although the rain prevented the attendance of many who would have otherwise been present, a good sized crowd was in evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. John Melow were shocked to learn that his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, were in the midst of the tornado, and lost nearly everything—barns, orchard and crops, except their house, which was badly racked, and would require much labor and expense to get back into shape. Mr. and Mrs. Melow have been there a number of days this week, helping to get things straightened up enough for the family to have a place to eat and sleep.

A delegation of some 15 or 20 auto loads of Pontiac business men struck town last Friday afternoon on their tour of the county in the interest of Liberty Loan Bonds, and exhorted the people from the balcony of the Owen House. They were accompanied by a band. The speakers pleaded with the people for an over-subscription of the bond issue, and insisted that every man denied the opportunity of entering the military ranks of the country should be in duty bound to buy a bond.
