The Ladies' committee that worked on the Liberty Loan solicitation wish us to make it known that they received nothing whatever in the way of remuneration for their work, despite the rumor floating around that they were receiving $7.00 a day, and "could afford to put in their time for Uncle Sam."

There was a good attendance at the Baptist picnic, held at Walled Lake Wednesday, and the day being one of the finest in a long time, everyone enjoyed the outing from start to finish. At noon the baskets were opened and dinner was served in good old picnic style, and everything good to eat was provided, all having enough and to spare. Following the dinner they were all taken for a boat ride, after which races were indulged in by everybody from five years old up to 45. After supper all departed for their homes, well satisfied with the day's pleasures.
