

Local News

James Brady was in Detroit Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Starr Graham was a Pontiac visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Elton Randall was a Pontiac caller Tuesday morning.

Mrs. T. H. McGee left Tuesday for a two weeks visit at Saginaw.

Fred Page and Miss Gengave Harger spent the Fourth in Detroit.

M. F. Stanley and son Claude were Farmington callers Sunday afternoon.

Misses Alice Priestley and Anna Peterson were Detroit visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. William Irish and niece Miss Mildred Adams were Detroit visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill Ambler, of Detroit, were calling on relatives in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Measell, of Detroit, visited her daughters, Mesdames Gates and Vallier Wednesday.

Mrs. Elva Tolman is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Starr Graham and family.

Miss Ruby Webber, of Plymouth, visited her sister, Mrs. Leon Green, from Sunday until Tuesday.

Regular meeting of the East-Star this (Friday) evening. All officers are requested to be there early.

Mark Wixom and brother Perry and the latter's son Kenneth, were Walled Lake callers Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Harley Kahrl and baby visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sukowski, near Novi.

Arthur Spaller has rented his father's farm, and is moving his family and household goods there this week.

Mrs. Mary Hatten and son Carl, returned the latter part of last week from their visit with relatives in Detroit.

O. H. Everett and wife, of Southfield, were Sunday callers at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Steele.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Melow, of Livonia, have been visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Ed Bowman and son, John Melow, and family.

Mrs. Louis Thayer and little son were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Waite, at Novi, over Sunday and the first of the week.

Miss Peck, Mr. Wittlauser, Miss Foy and friend, Mr. Brown, of Detroit, spent the Fourth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wadenstorer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Young, Mr. and Mrs. Don Conroy and daughters, Ione and LaDonna, of Detroit, spent Sunday with Geo. Hendryx and family at Walled Lake.

New cement walks are being placed in front of Mrs. Westfall's property; also Miss Ida Steele's on Shiawassee street. Cement porches will also be added, making nice improvements.

A number of our citizens celebrated the Fourth with fireworks display in the evening. Two or three balloons were cited, causing much stir among the younger set. Then too, most older people enjoy the balloons which are sent up at this time.

Miss Florence Allyn, of Detroit, has been visiting her brother, Frank Allyn and family, the past week. Wednesday, Miss Albert Geish, of Detroit, was also entertained there, and on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Malone, of Detroit, visited there. The latter is a sister of Mrs. Allyn.

Don't forget the fact that the Ladies Literary Red Cross meeting, which was to be July 11th, has been postponed until one week later, July 18th, and will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Inda Hambleton! On account of absence of officers, lack of supplies, etc., this plan seemed necessary, and all members are urged to be present.
