GRAIN CROPS ARE PROMISING

Western Canada 1917 Crops In Good Shape.

while it is a little early to predict with the Western Canada grain crop will produce, there is every indicators at the present juritus the cutture. Beports received from all portions of Abriton. Skakatchewan and Aberta speak of good growing weather, a fairly advanced singe of all grains, with prospects as good as in the past two years. Should conditions continue as at present, it is afte to continue that Western Chandian farmers, alrendy free of debt, as a grain of the sphendic crops and prevailing high prices, expect from this sea on's returned to be in a possition that worth the continue that the continue and the continue that the continue and the continue a

The acreage of Western Canada will be acreage of Western Canada will be about the same as last year. Seeding was somewhat: lafer thin isst year, but germination was quicker. The only possible drawback now would seem to be a scarcity of harvest handa, but it is felt by the authorities that the situation will be pretty well cared for by that time.

Land values are increasing, but there is room for a much greater increases than in the past, owing to the returns that farmed land will give when compared with its cost. In some district land that could have been bought average and the second of the control o

The demand for all grains for some years will be great, and it will require all the resources for dan, benst and solt to meet it. That the prices will be good goes without saying, but at the present time there is swetching more appealing than the iderative prices that prevail the prevail that it is the desire that the spirit of particular is the desired will lead him into a broader sphere of action. No matter where he may be he will look about him that he may find land to further develop the country's resources. It is possible that his own state use the spirit of offer. Place Without Victory.

The ancient joke anent the Winged Victory in its precept battered state was revamped in the light of later history in an art class. A plaster cast of the Victory was before the chask. The young 'modelers in clay pottered around and went away. One of the modelers had chosen only to work upon the hem of Victory's garment, so to speak, and left behind a replica of the mere fragment of the Victory's mere fragment of the Victory's the next day the student found written on has fragment this inscription.
