TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS:

Every once in a while a subscriber asks whether a charge is made for the publication of news items. For the benefit of those who think this to be the case, we wish to say that we are glad to receive these items for publication and no charge is made whatever. It is only with the help of our subscribers that we can make the paper newsy and the more items brought in the better we like it. It's dollars to doughnuts you are thinking of something right now that should have been printed in the paper, but you didn't take the trouble to tell the editor because you thought he would find out about it anyhow. Isn't it so? Start right now—today, to tell the editor any interesting items you may know. Help fill up the paper so she's runnin' over. That's what we want. Of course, anything not of public interest or benefit is advertising, and that will be charged for. A card of thanks, entertainment or social where it is planned to make money for any purpose comes under the head of advertising, but if you have visitors, go away, or an accident, death, birth, marriage or other news item occurs in your family or neighborhood we will be more than glad to get it and no charge will be made.

READ THE ADVERTISEMENTS
In a recent conversation with one of our merchants he remarked: "I know the ads in the Enterprise are largely read, as several 'specials' we have had were called for in large numbers." This fact, of course, has been proven to us many times during the past year, as we have made an effort to determine just how much "pulling power" the Enterprise had—it is a part of our business to "know."
However, we would be pleased to have our readers indicate to the advertisers that they "saw it in the Enterprise" when purchasing goods advertised by them. Such a course would greatly benefit us, and thereby benefit YOU in helping to make a better local paper.

Since coming to the Enterprise we have endeavored to build up the paper and make it one of the best in the county, and the advertising columns are really the "life" of any newspaper.
Read the "ads" and let the merchants know that you read them. They represent the "live" merchants.

Rev. James Priestley, Minister.
The pastor has returned from his vacation and is pleased to know that the services were much enjoyed last Sunday. Bro. Cone had a message for the people which was appreciated.

Next Sunday will be the last for this conference year. The majority are back from their vacations, and we are looking for a good attendance. Do not miss the morning message of the pastor.

Sunday school at the close of the morning preaching service. The attendance has been fine this summer, and we expect that we shall make some advance this fall.

In the evening the last service will be held for this conference year and we are anxious to make it a most memorable one. The pastor will bring a message that we can afford to miss.

Thursday evening prayer meeting at 7:30. Let everyone attend this means of grace.
The Woman's Home Missionary society will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Roos. A good attendance is desired. The program for the meeting will be full of interest.
