CHURCH NOTES

Salem Evangelical Rev. A. C. Stange will preach next Sunday morning at 10:45, eastern time, in the Farmington German church.

The Farmington Ladies' Aid meets on the first Wednesday in each month at the parsonage.

Baptist Church Rev. J. W. Salton, Pastor. Last Sunday we had a blessed time, both morning and evening, and Pastor Salton is bringing a message to you at 11 a. m., next Sunday, talking for his subject, "Borrowed Things." This sermon is worth hearing. In the evening the subject will be, "Thoughts in the Heart." It is worth your while to come and hear these sermons, and stay for Sunday school. We are having a great time in studying the deep truths wrapped up in God's word.

Methodist Church Rev. James Priestley, Minister. The pastor has returned from conference. He was reappointed to Farmington, and he hopes the year will be even better than the last.

The regular service Sunday morning at 10:30, the subject for the sermon being "The Day's Task and the Hastening Night." Let us make the first Sunday of the conference year one of inspiration, for the tasks that are before us. Do not fail to be there. The attendance at Sunday school has been very fine during the past few months, but we are anxious to do even better. You will be there Sunday. Rally day soon.

At the evening service the pastor will bring a message of help to you personally. You should not miss it. We are expecting that the work of the church, (now that vacation is over) will resume normal conditions.

Every Thursday evening prayer meeting is held, and you will find a hearty welcome. None can afford to miss these means of grace.

The immediate work of the pastor is to bring to a close the appeal for the endowment fund for the retired preachers of the conference. There is yet $149,000 to be raised in the conference before October 1, and we have our share of it to take care of. All who have not given are asked now to rally for this home stretch. We are going to win, but you must help us.

Universalist Church

Church Sunday at 3 p. m., with Dr. Moore, of Detroit, in charge. Everyone is welcome. The subject tonight very good, and quite up-to-date, namely "The Challenge of Today." Come and bring your friends. You will have an interesting hour.

The Ladies Union held a very interesting meeting at the church last Thursday afternoon. About 16 members were present. Election of officers was the main object of this gathering, said election being carried out in the usual social and enjoyable manner. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Mrs. Mary Crosby, President; Mrs. Minnie Johnson, vice president; Mrs. Bertha Steele, secretary; Mrs. Addie Pierson, treasurer. Reports of various kinds were read and approved. The past record for the year shows the Union to be better financially and otherwise than in some time. Several new members have been added, while there is also a neat little sum in the treasury. Altogether the year has been satisfactorily successful, and of course they will make the following year better. The next meeting with lunch and program, will be held at Mrs. Sarah Carmerlain's home on East Grand River, October the 4th. Everyone invited, and you will receive a hearty welcome.
