HUDSONAUTOMAN GLAD TO TESTIFY

Thought Trouble Would Keep Him From Working Any-more, He Says.

HIS HEALTH RESTORED

'I'm Glad to Tell Anybody About Thing That Did as Much For Mo as Taniac Has," Says De-troit Man.

"Yes sir, I am glad to tell anybody about a thing that did as much for me, as Tanike has," said Elmer Doonn, who is employed by the Hudson Motor Co., Dirtott, Mich, as assembler and has miny friends among the autonoble workers. "I think it only right he continued, "to pass the good worker had been assembler workers." It has to solve the papers about Taniae that it caused me to take it and general solve the papers about Taniae that it is trouble that looked thing any more.

"Por a long time I have had rheumatism in my imbs. The trouble was principally in my hands and wrist; in fact, the pains extended all the way down lo my finger, tips and my wrist would swell up and caused me to suffer something terrible. I just cen't tell you how finch I did suffer. I couldn't get any rest at nights on account of the pain and would get out of bed in the myrnings so tirted and worn-out it was all I could do to drag myself back to work. I finally got so bud I was losing a great deal of time for my work requires the use of nimble fingers and I simply couldn't keep up in my condition.

Synopsis—For years old Hillary K ngson lived with his daughter, Ellinor, in a bedutiful home on a hill in the suburban village of Woffingham. The neighbors knew nothing about the lestablishment, except that the father was quite wealthy, and the daighter, very good looking and gentle. In reality Kingston was head of an anarchist band, composed of Huff. Bordon, Taibot and Lethbridge, thit viobed the rich and gave to the poor and oppressed. Ohe day tolk Hillary was shot dead, and the course of life chapsed abruptly for his daughter. The Rev. Mr. Ward, a young bachely, tegan to take an uncommon interest in Ellinor. Young Watter Huff of the jung contrased his lore for her and she accepted it. Then Beoodsy was arrested on auspictons and his companions peptertated a colurity club hold-up to get tunds for his legal defense, but were sauly disappointed in the amount of the lange of the supplication of

Quite suddenly he crushed her to him. It was as if he meant to drive away this harrier between them by sheer force of his love for her. But, although she held up her face for his kiss, he released her as suddenly,
without it.
"You're crazy about him," he said
thickly. "I'm not blind. Til get him
