These coun-selors succeeded in creating doubt as to whether Cyrus had ever issued a de-crees for their return. This wicked op-position resulted in the undoing of the opposers, for search was made and a copy was found. Darus confirmed this by his own decree, and directed that ald be given from the orgal taxes so that the house of God might be built. W. The Temple Completed and Dediald be given from the royal taxes so that the house of God might be built. IV. The Temple Completed and Dedi-cated (61-14)S. The Prophets Blagsal and Zachariah now appear, and by warnings, ecorritions and entreaties stir up the people so that the work goes forward to a successful comple-tion. Without their aid probably the work would even have been completed. Human nature at times needs to be cheered and urged forward. These prophets did not themselves work in the building of the walls yet their work was of even greater importance. It is generally found that this is so with the religious leaders to by the words of cheer and encouragement of the Christian minister are needed ally for these who labor the building to the indire who labor the building the building we ng the stru-ck.
