CONTROL FRUIT TREE BORER

Cut Out Insect and Apply Concentrated Lime Sulphur—Look After Trees Semiannually.

Semiannually.

There are two kinds of borers in fruit trees, the round-headed and the flat heidedd. The round-headed borer probably does the greater injury, to infested trees, but the flat-headed is the mole common and therefore on the whole loose more lujury. There is no absolutely sure method of controlling these borers inasmuch as it is impossible to prevent the parent befores from laying their eggs on the truinks of trees, and once the borer is inside the tree it is difficult to get it. However, the following treatments will be found of considerable value:
